- Ask children to look at the words before and after the words in bold to help them work out their meaning from the context.
- Have the children explain the meaning of the words
- Ask them to check their answers in the dictionary on page 134 of the Pupil's Book.
- · Read out definitions from the dictionary in the following order: power, ambulance, embarrassed, cooker, million, heating, accident, electricity, hit, rehearsing. The class call out the words. Check and correct pronunciation as necessary.

Cooler: Quick memory game

- Play Quick memory game (see Games Bank, pages 14-17) with the words from the vocabulary panel.
- Alternatively, write the words on the board. Divide the class into two teams and call out a definition for each word. A volunteer from each group takes turns to come to the board and wipe out the corresponding word. If it is the correct word, the team gets a point.
- The team with the most points wins the game.

🌠 Learning to learn

Understand nouns and verbs

 Read out the information in the Learning to learn box and check understanding.

Read and write N (Noun) or V (Verb).

- · Elicit the meaning of scream. Read out the first sentence in the Learning to learn box (I heard a scream). Ask children to underline the verb (heard). Ask What tense is the verb? (simple past) Can verbs be in different tenses? (yes) Can nouns be in different tenses? (no) Can we change the word 'scream' for another noun? (e.g. noise, bell) (yes).
- Read out the second sentence (Don't scream!). Ask Is 'scream' a verb or a noun in this sentence? (a verb) How do you know? (because it could be replaced with another verb and it has the word 'Don't' before it)
- Go through 2 and 3 in the same way.
- Refer the children to 4 and 5 and read out the information (Some verbs change to form nouns. You need to learn these.).
- Children identify whether the word in each sentence is a noun or a verb.
- Check answers with the class.

Teaching star! 5

Extension

- You can extend activities if you need timefillers.
- Keep fast finishers usefully occupied by giving them an extra activity to do. Make sure the activity is engaging and that they are able to do it by themselves. By doing this, you are encouraging them to become autonomous learners.
- Tell the children to find forms of the words light. work and escape in the article and say if they are nouns or verbs (lights = noun, working = verb, escaped = verb). Then have the children write sentences with these words as nouns and as verbs.

Suggested answers:

The lights went out. Candles light the room, My phone doesn't work. I have a lot of work. The monkey escaped. There was an escape from the zoo.

Cooler: Word association

- Call out these words from the lesson: power, squirrel, zoo, accident, break, train, cooker, dinner, heating, scream. The children write down the first word that they think of after hearing each word.
- They can then compare their answers in pairs or as a class to see if they thought of the same words.

Warm-up: True or false?

- Play True or false? (see Games Bank, pages 14-17) with sentences about yourself for yesterday. (Yesterday I had chicken for dinner, Yesterday I visited my brother.)
- Ask some volunteers to say sentences about yesterday. Have the class vote on whether the sentences are true or false.

1 Look and read.

it escaped

- Tell the children to look at page 9 and to find sentences in paragraphs 2, 3 and 4 with this grammar structure. (I was singing when suddenly all the lights went out. I was cooking soup when the power went off. My train was leaving the station when the lights went out.)

- Play the video and continue as above, starting with the fourth point.
- Play the video again and have the children repeat the sentences.

Teaching star! Personalisation

- Adapt an activity to the children's own experience so they can use the language in relation to themselves. The language then becomes more meaningful and real, rather than just a lesson.
- Have the children think of their own sentence with the past continuous, when and the past simple. They do this individually and write the sentence in their notebooks. Then they read it to a friend.
- Have some volunteers read out their sentence to the class.

2 Circle the correct words.

 The children read the paragraph and circle the correct words. Elicit that we use the past continuous for the longer action and the past simple for the action that interrupts it. The past simple comes after when.

 Have the children do the activity individually. Then have volunteers read out a sentence each.

Grammar: Present simple and present continuous

Resources: (PK) - Unit 1, Reading time 1; (TRC) - Animated flashcards; (PRC) - Review audio track 1.8

Materials: Class Audio CD1

Warm-up: Tense review

- Dictate the following sentences: I was brushing my teeth when the phone rang. We were watching TV when the cat came in. They were playing soccer when it started to rain.
- Then write the sentences on the board and have the children exchange their dictations and check them.
- 1 (1) 1.8 Read the story on pages 18–20. Who are the main characters? What does the title The trick mean?

Pre-reading

- Refer the children to the pictures on pages 18–20.
   Ask which country they think the story takes place in and why.
- The children work in pairs and write a list of what they can see in the pictures on pages 18–20.
   Conduct class feedback. Who has the longest list?

 Go through each picture with the children. Elicit ideas about what happens in the story. Ask How many characters are there? Who are they? Where are they? What are they doing? etc.

While reading

- · Explain to the children that there may be some words they do not understand in the text, but that shouldn't stop them because they are reading for enjoyment.
- The children read the first part of the story on page 18 individually. Then ask simple questions to check understanding, e.g. Who are the main characters? (Musa, Hakan and Pinar) How do they know each other? (Musa and Hakan live next door to each other. Pinar is Hakan's wife.) What is the problem with Hakan's horse? (He isn't strong and healthy onymore.) Do you think Hakan is a good friend? Why? / Why not?
- Follow the same procedure for pages 19-20.
- · Ask What does the title 'The trick' mean? Elicit that a trick is when you make someone believe something that is not true.
- · Play the audio if the children need additional support.

Post-reading

- Ask Do you like the story? Why? / Why not?
- · Have children work in small groups to discuss which character they liked most in the story.
- · Ask for feedback, then have a class vote on the children's favourite character.

Teaching star!

Imagine

- To encourage expression of thoughts and feelings (intrapersonal intelligence), have the children reflect on the characters in the story.
- Ask How similar or different are you from the characters in the story? Which character is the most like you? Why?
- The children write the answers to the questions in their notebook.

Cooler: What are they saying?

- Refer the children to the picture of Musa and Hakan on page 19. In pairs, the children imagine the two characters each have a speech bubble. Ask What do you think they are saying?
- Have the children write a short conversation between the two men. Have volunteers come to the front and act out the conversation.

Warm-up: A different title

- Divide the class into small groups and have the children think of a new title for the story. Tell them that it has to be short, catchy and related to the story.
- Have a volunteer from each group say the new title and write it on the board.
- As a class, decide which is the best new title for the story.

Read the story on pages 18-20 again. Answer the questions.

- Ask children what they remember about the story. Ask Who are the main characters? Where are they? What does Hakan want to do?

- Read out the first question. Elicit answers.
- Have the children discuss questions 2–5 in pairs.
- Compare answers as a class.

4 🖫 🗐 Imagine that Musa really broke his leg and Hakan didn't tell him the truth. How would the ending be different?

- Say Musa has really broken his leg and Hakan has to take him to hospital. What is the problem? (Hakan only has a sick horse, which Musa thinks is strong and healthy.) Elicit ideas.
- · Children work in small groups to discuss their ideas about how the story ending would be different.
- While they do this, circulate, monitor and help.
- · Conduct feedback with the class and decide who has the best idea.

5 Watch the video to see a different ending to the story. Is it similar to your ideas in Activity 4? Which ending do you prefer? Why?

Before the video

- Tell children that they are going to watch a video showing a different ending to the story (see Videoscript on page pages 40-41).
- Divide the class into small groups and have each group choose one character from the story. Children write down the main characteristics of the character they chose.
- Then they read them aloud to the class. The class guesses which character they chose.

During the video

- Play the video and have the children write two things that are different from the story ending in the Pupil's Book.
- Ask Why do you think Hakan was embarrassed to tell Musa the truth? What happened to the horse? Does the farmer appear in the Pupil's Book? Why was Musa angry with Hakan?
- Elicit answers from the children. Pause the video if necessary.

After the video

- Ask children if they were surprised by the ending in the video. Ask which ending they prefer and why.
- Ask follow up questions: Do you think the farmer was a good person? Why? / Why not? Do you think Hakan deserved to be left alone? Why? Do you think he can change? How can people show kindness?
- Elicit answers from the children.

Videoscript

Musa was happy. Hakan was going to sell him his horse, Atik, the strongest and fastest horse in the village.

But while Musa was preparing dinner that evening, he fell over and broke his leg.

Hakan heard his cries and ran to help him.

'You need to go to hospital immediately,' said Hakan.

'The nearest hospital is 30 kilometres away,' said Musa. 'But how lucky we are to have Atik to take us therel

Hakan didn't know what to do. He was too embarrassed to tell Musa the truth.

'30 kilometres isn't far,' he thought. 'I'm sure Atik will be fine."

He brought the horse to Musa's house and helped his triend onto the cart.

Then they set off across the countryside to the hospital. At first Atik ran quickly.

'It will be OK,' thought Hakan. 'We will soon arrive at the hospital."

But soon the horse started to slow down. It got slower and slower until it finally stopped and lay down on

'Oh, no!' cried Hakan. 'What am I going to do now?' At that moment, a farmer appeared and rode towards

'What's happened?' asked the farmer.

'My horse is sick,' explained Hakan, 'And my friend has got a broken leg. We need to get to the hospital.' Musa heard Hakan and realised what had happened. 'I thought you were my friend,' he shouted. 'But you have tricked me and lied to me. I never want to see you or speak to you again!'

You are not a kind man!' said the farmer.

I will take your friend to the hospital. And I will give your horse food and water, and take it to my farm to get well.'

So Hakan was left alone in the middle of the countryside with no friends and no horse.

He didn't know how he was going to get home, but he had a lot of time to think about how to be a kinder person in future.

Extension

- You can extend an activity as a time filler and for extra practice.
- Have the children work in pairs to create a new character for the story. Tell them to give the character a name.
- Ask the children for feedback. They explain the role of their new character in the story and why they created this character.

Cooler: What happens to Hakan?

- Have children imagine what happens to Hakan at the end of the video. Ask questions to help, e.g. Does he get home? If yes, how? Does someone come to rescue him? If no, what does he do? Does he stay in the countryside?, etc.
- Children draw a scene to show what they think happens to Hakan in the end.
- Invite volunteers to explain their scene to the class. Find out if anyone had the same idea.
