

Unit 1

Exercise 3

Where did the girl leave her gloves?

- M Don't forget to take your gloves with you. It's freezing outside.
- W OK Dad, but I don't remember where I left them.
- M Did you look on your desk?
- W Yes, but they aren't there. Maybe I left them in your car yesterday.
- M Why don't you go and have a look then? Oh, hold on, they're over there, on top of your school bag.
- W Thanks, Dad!

Exercise 4

1 What instrument does the girl's mother complain about?

- W I just love music!
- M So do I. I'm learning how to play the drums.
- W That sounds like fun! I play the electric guitar, but my mum always complains about the 'noise'.
- M In our house, my mum plays the piano day and night!
- W You're lucky! Your mum loves music!

2 What time does the boy wake up for school?

- W What time do you get up in the morning?
- M At the weekend I usually get up at nine o'clock, but on a normal school day, I wake up at half past seven.
- W That's quite early! What time does school start?
- M At nine, but I take a bus to school, so I leave home at eight o'clock.

3 Which picture are they looking at?

- W This is a beautiful photo! Did you take it?
- M Yes, I did, with my new iPad! We were in Spain; my family and I went last summer.
- W Your mum looks so relaxed and so does your sister.
- M Yes, they do. We had a wonderful time; Spain is amazing!

4 Which after-school activity do the two boys have in common?

- M I made a new friend yesterday; his name's Alan.
- W That's great! Where did you meet him; at football?
- M He plays football after school like I do, but we actually met in art class. He's really artistic; not like me.
- W Wow, an artistic football player! You have to introduce me.
- M I'm sure you'll like him. He's also very interesting; he reads a lot, just like you.

5 What is Wendy's hair like now?

- M Your hair looks great, Wendy!
- W Thanks, but I don't really like it. The hairdresser cut it so short.
- M Well, I think it's a nice change. You look like a famous actress!
- W I don't think so; most famous actresses have long fair hair.
- M Don't worry, it will grow back soon.

Exercise 3

- C And this, Maria, is the living room. Shall we drink our tea here?
- M Yes, OK. I'm so happy you invited me to come and stay with you, Cathy.
- C I'm happy you're here, too. We're going to have an incredible time! Starting from today! My friend is having a party tonight; do you want to go?
- M I'd love to; parties are great fun!
- C It starts at about seven ... so we have plenty of time to have our tea and talk before we get ready.
- M Wow ... seven o'clock is early! In Spain, we go out a lot later, so we usually have a siesta after lunch, especially in summer when it's hot. Do British people have siestas?
- C No, not really ... but taking a nap during the day sounds nice, though. Sometimes I feel really tired after school.
- M Me too, but I have extra lessons after school, so there isn't time for a siesta on a school day.
- C I don't have any free time after school either. I have a part-time job three times a week and on the other two days, I have netball training.
- M Teenagers in Spain don't usually have part-time jobs; there just isn't time.
- C What about money then?
- M My parents give me pocket money every week and my grandparents usually give me some money when we visit for Sunday lunch.
- C You're a lucky girl, Maria!
- M Yes, but those traditional Sunday lunches are extremely boring sometimes ... and tiring. Mum does the cooking and I do the washing-up!
- C I know what you mean! We have that tradition in our family, too!
- M So we do have some things in common ... except for siestas!
- C Yes! Now, let's get ready for the party!

- W Oh, I've never been there. Was it any good?
M It was great! There were so many things to see and do.
W What did you enjoy the most?
M The IMAX theatre; we saw an amazing 3D film called Under the Sea. It was brilliant!
W How do you spell the theatre's name?
M It's I-M-A-X.
W How much is a ticket for the IMAX theatre?
M It's £9, but it's definitely worth it.
W I'd love to go. How can I buy tickets?
M Well, you can buy them online or you can call 0870 870 4868. You can also get tickets at the museum.
W One more thing ... what are the opening times?
M It's open seven days a week from 10 am to 6 pm.
W Thanks for the information, Paul!
M You're welcome! But make sure you take some extra money with you because there's an unbelievable gift shop. There are so many things available ... games and lots of things to do with science.

Exercise 4

I hope you all enjoyed today's tour. Tomorrow, we're visiting Taronga Zoo, which is home to over 4,000 animals. We're going to take a ferry from Circular Quay to get there. The coach will pick you up from your hotel at 9.20 am. We'll take the 10 o'clock ferry, so we'll arrive at the zoo a little before 11 o'clock. Now, here's some information about the ferry tickets. You'll need to get a return MyFerry1 ticket which costs $12.40. But if you have already bought a MyFerry1 Travel Ten card, then you won't need to buy a ticket because you can use that. Since you're going to spend quite a few hours at the zoo, you'll want to have something to eat there. There are restaurants and cafés in the zoo, but they are quite expensive. If you like, you can take something with you and sit in a picnic area. There are four zoo shops and they all have a wide selection of soft toys, T-shirts, books and much more. I'm sure most of you will want to get souvenirs, so leave time for that and let's all meet back at the zoo shop which is next to the main entrance at 3.30 pm.

W Lucky you! What did you have on Monday?
M Well, I wanted a burger and chips, but we had fish and chips instead.
W Yummy! Did you have something nice on Tuesday?
M No, not really. We usually have pizza and chips on Tuesdays, but last Tuesday, we had meatballs and rice ... I don't like rice at all!
W I quite like rice, but I don't like spaghetti. Did you have something you like on Wednesday?
M Yes, I did; spaghetti carbonara! It was delicious!
W Do you ever have anything boring like a sandwich and some fruit?
M No, not often, but we had grilled chicken and vegetables on Thursday; that was boring!
W And do you usually have something special on Fridays?
M Yes, we do. My favourite dish is burgers and chips.
W What did you have last Friday?
M We had lasagne and salad ... it was very nice!

Unit 6

Exercise 3

Where is the boy now?

- M Do you want me to pick up Justin from football training?
W You don't need to; he didn't go. He's upstairs in bed. He's got a temperature and he's sneezing.
M How did that happen? He was fine at breakfast this morning.
W It was raining hard on the way home from school and he got very wet.
M I'll go and see how he is.
W Hold on, can you take this cup of tea to him?

Exercise 4

- 1 What was the boy doing last night?
W What's wrong Bill? Have you got a headache?
M No, I just feel really tired. I didn't get enough sleep last night.
W Why not? Did you stay up playing computer games again?
M No I didn't! I was studying for today's maths test.
W Oh, I hope you didn't fall asleep during the test.
- 2 Which food is the boy allergic to?
W Jamie, do you want a bowl of cereal for breakfast?
M No, thanks Auntie Sue. Some cereals have nuts in them and I'm allergic to nuts.
W Yes, of course. I remember that now. How about a boiled egg then?
M Oh, I don't like eggs; could I have a cheese sandwich, please?
W OK, I'll call you when it's ready.

3 What does the girl NOT eat anymore?

- W Ever since I started eating healthily I feel so good and I've lost weight!
- M Have you stopped eating junk food?
- W Yes! I have meat and vegetables for my main meal every day now.
- M And what about when you're hungry and you want a snack? What do you have then?
- W That's the hardest part. I can only have fruit.

4 When will the doctor see the boy?

- M Hello, I'd like to make an appointment with Dr Smith, please.
- W Let's see, can you come this afternoon at four o'clock?
- M No, I'm sorry. I can't. But I can be there half an hour later.
- W Er ... no ... Dr Smith has another appointment at four thirty; what about at five o'clock?
- M Yes. Five o'clock is fine, thank you!

5 Where are the two friends now?

- M I know you aren't feeling very happy, Julie, but you shouldn't sit around all day.
- W I can't help it. I don't feel like doing anything.
- M But, it's a beautiful day outside. Let's go for a walk.
- W No, I don't want to do that. But we can sit outside in the garden and have a chat if you like.
- M OK, let's do that; maybe we can go for a walk later.

6 What kind of exercise is the man going to start?

- M The doctor told me that I have to start exercising.
- W What sort of exercise did he tell you to do?
- M Well, he said the best exercise for me is walking. I should walk for an hour at least three times a week. He also said that I should avoid cycling and running for now.
- W I think jogging would be OK, too.
- M Yes, it is, but I must warm up first.

Unit 7

Exercise 3

- INT Today we're talking to Janet Williams, who is a student at an unusual school. Hello Janet and thanks for being on the show.
- JW Hello. Thanks for having me.
- INT Now Janet, you live in the Australian outback and you're a student of Alice Springs School of The Air.
- JW That's right, but I don't actually go to school there. I have online lessons at home because I live too far away from a normal school.
- INT How far away do you live from the nearest school?
- JW 280 kilometres.
- INT That's a long way! What time do your online lessons begin?
- JW I have lessons every day from Monday to Friday and they start at 8 o'clock in the morning. After the online lessons, we do lots of work on our own.
- INT And what are online lessons like?
- JW They're really cool. They last for about half an hour. We all use computers, of course, and microphones so we can take part in the lesson. We can all hear what our teacher is saying as well as what the other students say.
- INT What's your teacher's name?
- JW It's Mrs Stevens. I really like her.

- INT How do you spell her surname?
- JW It's S-T-E-V-E-N-S.
- INT Can you call her if you need any help?
- JW Yes, I can. I usually call her if I have any questions about maths.
- INT Do you ever see your teacher and classmates?
- JW Yes, I do. Once a year, I stay at the school camp in town for a week. It's great fun!

Exercise 4

Good morning listeners! What a beautiful Saturday morning! Do you want to know what's on this weekend? Well, I've got great news for you! Tomorrow night, the famous Anton and the Band are giving a concert at Lister Park near the town square. That's right! You heard correctly! Anton and the Band are going to perform here in Bradford. If you can't go to the concert, you can see them perform at the Westfield shopping centre on Monday, 13th August. As I was saying, tomorrow Sunday 12th August, Anton will sing his greatest hits, Love is, Broken Heart, Only You and many more for you and your friends to enjoy. The concert starts at half past eight in the evening and it will probably finish about eleven. Don't miss it! Now, entrance to the park is free and the tickets for the concert are only £5 ... that's right, so you should go early if you want to find a seat or stand in front of the stage. And just so you know, they are going to use the money from the tickets to plant more trees and flowers in the park.

Unit 9

Exercise 3

- W Hi Paul, what are you doing?
- M Hi Kim. I've just been reading about the La Tomatina festival?
- W I haven't heard of that. What is it?
- M It's a festival and it lasts one week. There's music, dancing, parades and fireworks, but the highlight is on the last day.
- W And what happens then?
- M At about midday, thousands of people, who come from all over the world, start throwing tomatoes at each other. The 'fight' lasts for about an hour or so!
- W Wow! What are they celebrating?
- M Nothing really; they do it just for fun.
- W It sounds like fun! Where does it take place?
- M In Buñol, which is a small town near Valencia in Spain.
- W I've always wanted to go to Spain! How can I get to the festival?
- M You can take a bus or rent a car, but the easiest way from Valencia is by train.
- W How long is the journey?
- M Buñol is about 40 km away and the journey takes 50 minutes; there's a train every hour on the morning of the tomato fight.

W And when does this tomato fight take place?

M It takes place on the last Wednesday of August every year. Visitors usually arrive by Sunday or Monday so that they can enjoy the other activities during the festival.

W Thanks for telling me about it! I can't wait to go!

Unit 10

Exercise 3

W Hi Nick, how was your first day back at school?

M Hi Mum, it was great; especially the music lesson. We talked about different musical instruments and which ones we play.

W Do any of your classmates play the electric guitar like you?

M No, but Bobby plays the classical guitar. He tried learning to play the violin last year, but he said it was too difficult.

W What about James? What does he play?

M He plays the trumpet, but he'd love to be able to play the flute too.

W Wow! And what instrument does Lynda play?

M She's been playing the piano since she was six years old.

W That's great! Does Jennifer play any instruments?

M Yes, she does. She plays the xylophone and now she wants to learn to play the trumpet.

W That sounds like a good idea. Does Kevin play anything?

M Yes, he does. He plays the violin and he's really good at it.

W What about that pretty blonde girl? ... I think her name's Maxine ...

M Yes, that's her name ... you won't believe it ... she plays the drums!
