

Unit 1

Reading

- 1C You are right-handed, so you have a right-handed tin-opener; your friend is left-handed.
 2C There are always these little problems.
 3B These items are not easy to find in the high street ...
 4C ... useful tips and information for 'lefties'.
 5B Both texts mention tin-openers, potato-peelers, scissors and notebooks. Only the website mentions buttons and golf clubs, and only the article mentions rulers.

Reading

2

- 1D The question before the gap asks what the hovercraft trip was like and sentence D tells us Jerry's opinion of it.
2E This sentence answers the question affirmatively and then explains why the hovercraft journey was better than the ferry boat journey.
3A The short answer fits grammatically and the idea of seasickness fits in with the fact that it was windy and the crossing was difficult.
4F This sentence tells us Jerry's opinion of the channel tunnel.
5B This sentence tells us the best thing about it.

Reading

- 1C Paragraph 1 talks about English people drinking coffee, but it doesn't say how much they drink in comparison to tea.
2B Coffee hasn't always been popular, but there are three periods in our history when it was popular just like it is today.
3A It cost a penny for a bowl, not a cup, of coffee. However, one penny was not cheap ...
4C Paragraph 4 tells us that after 1750, coffee became cheaper, but there is no mention of the price of tea.

5A In the 1950s and '60s, cafés, or espresso bars, became the places for the young and fashionable. ... But this only lasted for a few years.

6C Paragraph 6 tells us that there are more types of coffee to choose from, but it doesn't say more types of coffee shop.

Reading

- 1C This means vegetables, such as cabbage, cauliflower and broccoli, that are good for our health ...
2B Broccoli contains antioxidants such as vitamins C, A and K and calcium among others.
3C Oily fish, such as salmon, which naturally contain omega-3 fatty acids ...
4D ... bananas are great for keeping up energy levels, which is why many sportsmen and women eat them ...
5C ... but to eat only a few foods because they are called superfoods will lead to an unhealthy diet. What you need is a healthy balanced diet; that is, one which contains food from all the main food groups.

1E Sentence E tells us answers the question about how Jed feels. He says that he thinks it's great.
2D Sentence D tells us that Jed doesn't think there is a secret to his success. He explains that you never really know what the public will like, which echoes the idea of popularity.
3A In sentence A that's true refers to him being asked to enter the Eurovision song contest. Sentence A tells us that he didn't enter the contest and Jack's next question, Why not?, asks about his decision not to enter.
4F Sentence F explains that Jed likes the Eurovision Song Contest and goes on to give us a reason why didn't enter. This ties in with Jack's question after the gap.
5H Sentence H answers Jack's question about whether it was the only reason, and gives us a second reason why Jed didn't enter the contest.

6C In sentence C, Jed says that Jack asked some good questions which is a compliment and Jack thanks him after the gap.
