There is a new water park in town. We went there on the first day of summer. It has pools and water slides. There were sprinklers too. The slides are big and scary at first, but after the first ride, we loved the water slides. The sprinklers are cool on hot days. One of the pools makes its own waves. All the kids tried to surf the waves. The pool was very crowded and had a notice, do not bring personal item inside! But we didn't read it because there were many kids and adults, but when we entered, I slipped and lost my wallet, and the place were crowded I couldn't find my wallet. It was the worst day ever! Unfortunately, I didn't have money to enjoy the rest of the rides. So, we decided to go back home.

Read the passage and answer the questions.

Chinese were the first people to grow rice before 10,000 years ago. Today, rice is grown all around the world. It grows best in wet places, so countries with a lot of rain produce a lot of rice. The country that produces the most rice is China, and the traditional dish is fried rice. Rice is the seed of the rice plant. Rice is usually white. When the outside of the rice seed isn't cleaned, it is brown, so it's called brown rice. Brown rice has more vitamins and it's healthier. Some rice seeds are black, and they become purple when you cook them. There are many meals you can make with rice, but you can also make desserts, like rice pudding, or you can even use rice oil for cooking.
