3- Reading

Nature walks are an excellent way to rejuvenate the mind and body. Spending time outdoors has been linked to numerous health benefits. Studies show that people who engage in regular nature walks experience lower levels of stress, improved mood, and increased physical fitness. The natural setting provides a calming effect, allowing individuals to disconnect from the hustle and bustle of daily life.

Moreover, walking in nature can boost creativity. When individuals immerse themselves in natural surroundings, they often find inspiration that can lead to innovative ideas. This phenomenon is attributed to the restorative effect of nature, which helps clear the mind and enhances focus.

In addition to mental health benefits, nature walks also promote physical well-being. Walking is a lowimpact exercise that can improve cardiovascular health, strengthen muscles, and enhance flexibility. The fresh air and sunlight can also bolster the immune system, making individuals less susceptible to illness.

Despite the myriad advantages, many people still choose to spend most of their time indoors. Barriers such as busy schedules, lack of access to natural environments, and the allure of technology can prevent individuals from enjoying the great outdoors. Encouraging more people to engage in nature walks can foster a healthier, happier population.

1. Choose the correct answer:

1. What is text mainly about?

- A- Creativity
- B- Increased stress levels
- C- Mental health

D- Outdoor life

2. Why do people often find inspiration during nature walks?

- A- They are distracted by technology.
- B- They are surrounded by natural settings.
- C- They focus on their busy schedules.
- D- They walk alone in silence.

3. Mention benefits of nature walks

Benefit 1	Reduce stress
Benefit 2	Boost creativity
Benefit 3	Improve physical health

4. State the barriers of nature walks:

Barrier 1	Busy schedules
Barrier 2	Lack of access to nature
Barrier 3	Attraction to technology

5- Decide whether these sentences are True, False or Not Given:

1. Nature walks have no impact on physical health. ()
- 2-Many individuals prefer spending their time outdoors rather than indoors. ()

Topic B

Write a summary of a story you have read recently.

"Hamad's Lesson" is a story written by John W. in 2010. The main character is Hamad, and the story takes place in a small town. The writer shows how he learns to respect others.

The story begins when Hamad ignores his father's warning not to stay out too late. He plays with his friends and forgets the time, getting lost and scared. In the end, a kind neighbor helps him home, and his father says, "I warned you because I care." Feeling ashamed, Hamad promises to respect and listen to his father.

I think the story is meaningful. The moral lesson is that we should respect those who care for us.

Write a summary of a story you have read recently.

"Omar's Hard Work" is a story written by John W. in 2025. The main character in the story is Omar. The story takes place in a school. The writer shows how the boy is careless at first but later becomes hardworking.

The story begins with many shocking events. First, Omar avoided studying and rushed through his homework. Also, he believed that luck was more important than effort and didn't prepare for his test. In the end, he failed the test, felt disappointed, and decided to work hard, study daily, and never give up.

I think the story is inspiring. The moral lesson of the story is that hard work and dedication lead to success.

Write a summary of a story you have read recently.

"Matilda" is a story written by Roald Dahl in 1988. The main character in the story is Matilda Wormwood. The story takes place in England. The writer shows how the girl is very smart and talented. The story begins with many shocking events. First, her parents were cruel and didn't care about her. Also, when she went to school, she found that the principal, Miss Trunchbull, was very mean. In the end, her kind teacher, Miss Honey, helped her and took care of her. I think the story is thrilling. The aim of the story is that we need love, kindness, and support to succeed.
