Read the following passage then answer the following questions:

The best ice cream ever

I have been trying to decide who makes the best ice cream. I have narrowed it down to my four favorite manufacturers: Randolph Farms, Goodies, Disco, and Twinkle. Let's start with Randolph Farms. Randolph Farms makes very good ice cream. They have lots of different flavors, but this doesn't really matter to me because I always get coffee flavor. They make the best coffee ice cream in the world. I've never had hot coffee (the drink) but people tell me that Randolph Farms coffee ice cream tastes delicious. They say that Randolph Farms use all natural ingredients to make their ice cream. This is a good idea, I think.

Second, we have Goodies. Goodies makes excellent ice cream. Like Randolph Farms, Goodies use all-natural ingredients. They only make three different flavors strawberry, vanilla, and chocolate, but they make them very well. The strawberry is amazing. Every bite of it reminds me of the strawberries that I used to pick behind my old house. The vanilla is wonderful. It is very smooth and has a refreshing, creamy taste. The chocolate is outstanding. It is made with real cocoa beans from Bolivia. That's a long way to go to get cocoa. I would say that the only drawback to Goodies ice cream is that they only make three different flavors.

Third, we have Disco. Disco ice cream is okay. They don't have many good flavors. Actually, the only Disco flavor I like is Bubblegum. It is vanilla ice cream with little chunks of bubblegum in it. After you eat the ice cream, you can blow bubbles with the gum. That's pretty fun.

Finally, there is Twinkle. Twinkle ice cream is ordinary. The only good thing about Twinkle is that it is relatively inexpensive. You can buy a whole carton of twinkle ice cream for $4.50. That's only two weeks' allowance for me.

Read the following passage then answer the following questions:

1. What is the passage MAINLY about?

- A. how the finest ice cream in the world is made in factories
- B. what the four top ice cream manufacturers do to be famous
- C. what strawberry, vanilla and the other flavors do to the ice cream
- D. when the best ice cream manufacturers prefer marketing their product

2. Which word BEST replaces the underlined word “outstanding” in paragraph (2)?

- A. tasty
- B. specific
- C. excellent
- D. unimportant

3. What is the only drawback to Goodies ice cream?

- A. They make excellent ice cream.
- B. The strawberry flavor is amazing.
- C. They make three different flavors.
- D. They use cocoa beans from Bolivia.

4. What is the common thing between Randolph and Goodies?

5. Why is Disco ice cream considered fun to eat?

6. What does the writer think of Twinkle ice cream?

Unforgettable day

The boys walked slowly across the valley. Then suddenly Fred stopped and sat down on a large stone. "I can't go any further. I'm absolutely exhausted!"

Eric looked at him for a minute. "Oh, come on!" he said. "It's not very far now. Only five or six miles at the most."

Eric sat down too. For a while the two boys said nothing. Then Fred pointed to some trees about half a mile ahead.

The two boys found a hut between the trees then they cleaned it out and lit a fire. Then they had supper. They were both tired and they didn't talk too much. Before they went to bed, they put plenty of wood on the fire.

Suddenly Fred was awake. The fire was nearly out. He could hear noises outside. It sounded like voices. He woke up Eric.

"It's only the wind," he grumbled. "Go to sleep again!"

But it wasn't the wind! The voices came nearer until they were just outside the hut. The door opened and a light shone on their faces. "They're here!" a voice called out. A policeman was standing in the doorway. He addressed the two boys. "You've given us a lot of trouble," he said. "We've looked all over the valley for you two!"

Read the following passage then answer the following questions:

1. What is the text mainly about?

- A) Eric is having a tiring day.

Read the following passage then answer the following questions:

What do you know about umbrellas?

Umbrella is an old idea. It has not changed much over time. Old sculpture from the Middle East, shows the king with an umbrella. The sculpture is over 1,000 years old. At that time, common people did not have umbrellas. Only royalty had them. (2) More than 2000 years ago, fashionable women carried umbrellas in ancient Greece. In China, only royalty used umbrellas. In old Chinese books, there are illustrations of umbrellas. They were made with paint, blood, and special drawing tools.

Umbrellas in old Chinese books look a lot like today's umbrellas. There is not much information about umbrellas in Europe in the Middle Ages. People probably used their coats to protect themselves from the rain. People in the South Pacific used umbrellas made of palm leaves to protect themselves from the sun and rain. (3) There have been many improvements to umbrellas. Now, modern umbrellas are better than the old umbrellas. The old umbrellas were often made of oiled silk.

Modern umbrellas are made of cotton or plastic. Old umbrellas had ribbing made of wood. Modern umbrellas have steel ribs. Also, the trunk of the modern umbrella extends like a telescope. It can collapse and become shorter or extended and become longer. (4) Umbrellas are useful, they have been around for thousands of years protecting people from both rain and shine. Today, the umbrella trend is still going strong. You'll see high-end options from famous designers like Louis Vuitton, Gucci, and Prada. Umbrellas are now a consumer product with a large global market. It continues to be actively developed.

Read the following passage then answer the following questions:

1. What is the text MAINLY about?

- A . Materials of umbrellas.
- B. General information about umbrellas.
- C. The importance of having umbrellas nowadays.

2. What word best replaces the underlined word “illustrations ” in paragraph (2)?

- A. maps
- B. materials
- C. pictures
- D. texts

3. Where were umbrellas carried more than 2000 years ago?

- A. Far East
- B. North Pacific
- C. Ancient Greece
- D. Western Europe

4. Why did People in the South Pacific use umbrellas made of palm leaves?

5. What are some of the brands of umbrellas nowadays?

A description of an event

INTRODUCTION

Give general information about the event. Mention some of the following:

- name
- when, where, how and why it started
- when and where it takes place
- how long it lasts for
- who takes part in it

MAIN PART

Mention what happens, what people do, eat, watch, etc.

CONCLUSION

Give your opinion of this event or make a general comment.

The Qatar international Food Festival, Or QIFF, is an event that happens for 11 days every year in March. It's always held outside in a different part of Doha, so that people can enjoy the spring weather.

During the days of the food festival, there are a variety of things to do and see! First of all, restaurants in Qatar offer special meals at good prices, which encourages people to go out and taste foods from all over the world. There are also cooking theatres where people can watch chefs cooking and then taste what they have made. For those who want to improve their cooking skills, they are given the chance to learn from world – famous chefs by taking their cooking classes. At QIFF there is also a place that is just for children where they can taste food that has been made especially for them or play the various games that are available.

I always have a great time at the Qatar International Food Festival. It's my favourite event!

Readi

It is a frigid January day in York, Pennsylvania.

The temperature is below freezing. Snow is starting to fall.

Dr. James turns on the television to check the weather.

He must leave for his work at the hospital soon.

"Today is going to be very cold," says the TV weatherman. "Be sure to wear very warm clothes when you go outside. Also, be careful driving on the roads. Snowfall will make them slippery. In fact, if you can stay home today, do it!"

Dr. James cannot stay home because very sick people are waiting to see him at the hospital.

He goes to his closet. He takes out the warmest clothes he has.

He puts on a sweater, jacket, gloves, socks, boots, and a hat.

He opens his front door to go to work. A gust of cold air blows inside.

"Wow, it is very cold outside," Dr. James says. He is from Miami and is not used to the cold. "The weatherman was right!"

Before he can drive to work, Dr. James must clear the snow off his car. He does this very fast. He hops in the car. He shivers. His neck feels especially cold.

Dr. James drives slowly to work. Everyone else is driving slowly, too.

There is a lot of traffic on the road. There are cars in front of and behind

A Funny situation

Two weeks ago, I won a competition, and I got the golden medal, so I decided to celebrate that with my family and invite them out for a dessert and a coffee. I decided to choose one of my favorite coffee shops, called "The Blue River". I have chosen it for its tasty coffee, and the friendly waiters there. Moreover, it is never crowded.

For my surprise, the cafe was so crowded, and all tables were busy when we entered the café. I was so surprised to the point that I asked the Waiter, who explained saying, that there was a group of tourists celebrating one's birthday. He asked us to wait till one of the tables is free. We could sit after about 30 mins of waiting.

Unfortunately, the waiter could come to take our orders after almost one hour. I recommended my family the best desserts there .But I got shocked when the waiter told us that the only thing we could order is tea or Nescafe. That's because everything there finished. I was shocked and embarrassed, but we all laughed at that funny situation.

- A) noisy
- B) peaceful
- C) full of power
- D) full of people

3-According to paragraph 2, why was the writer surprised?

4- When could the writer and his family find a free table?

5- Why did they laugh at the end?

Unforgettable day

The boys walked slowly across the valley. Then suddenly Fred stopped and sat down on a large stone. "I can't go any further. I'm absolutely exhausted!"

Eric looked at him for a minute. "Oh, come on!" he said. "It's not very far now. Only five or six miles at the most."

Eric sat down too. For a while the two boys said nothing. Then Fred pointed to some trees about half a mile ahead.

The two boys found a hut between the trees then they cleaned it out and lit a fire. Then they had supper. They were both tired and they didn't talk too much. Before they went to bed, they put plenty of wood on the fire.

Suddenly Fred was awake. The fire was nearly out. He could hear noises outside. It sounded like voices. He woke up Eric.

"It's only the wind," he grumbled. "Go to sleep again!"

But it wasn't the wind! The voices came nearer until they were just outside the hut. The door opened and a light shone on their faces. "They're here!" a voice called out. A policeman was standing in the doorway. He addressed the two boys. "You've given us a lot of trouble," he said. "We've looked all over the valley for you two!"

1- What is the text mainly about?

- A) Eric is having a tiring day.
B) Eric is having a picnic.
C) Eric's daily routine
