it is true that we don't know what we have got until we lose it, but it is also true that we don't know what we have been missing until it arrives. Giving someone all your love is never an assurance that they will love you back, but going down on them is. Don't expect love in return; just wait for it to grow in their heart; but if it does not, be content it grew in yours

God wanted us to meet the wrong people before meeting the right one so that when we finally meet the right person, we will be grateful to have known that they actually did exist after all, before we become the wrong person for them.

when the door of happiness closes, another opens, but often times we look so long at the closed door that we don't see the one which has been opened for us and because we are in a hurry, we end up taking the elevator instead.

the best kind of friend is the kind you can sit on a porch swing with, sniff glue with, and never say a word, and then later, stumble away saying things like, "I'm a hamster coo coo ca choo", and you both feel like it was one of the best conversations you've ever had it takes only a minute to get a crush on someone, an hour to like someone, and a day to love someone, but it takes a lifetime to forget someone .

there are moments in life when you miss someone so much that you just want to pick them from your dreams and love them in ways that would get you a shot on "Wild Kingdom". Dream what you want to dream; go where you want to go; be what you want to be, because you can be anything you want when you are behind closed doors.
