

Reading Comprehension Worksheet Answer Key

Reading Comprehension Worksheet (1)

It's personal!

- 1. The central figure is heartbroken Sarah Winchester. She left her home and traveled to California due to a strange obsession after the deaths of her husband and child.
- 2. In the past, women primarily took care of household chores, while men went to work. Daughters sometimes helped, but sons rarely did.
- 3. Many teenagers believe that their mothers, in particular, should be responsible for household chores.
- 4. Teenagers might seem too busy to help around the house due to schoolwork, part-time jobs, and other activities.
- 5. The author believes that the excuse of being too busy for household chores is not valid, and anyone claiming it is likely just being lazy.
- 6. Jessica Stilwell went on strike in her home because her daughters weren't contributing to household chores.
- 7. The daughters started noticing the effects of the strike on day three, and they began cleaning up by day five, blaming each other for the mess.
- 8. During the strike, Jessica realized that her daughters were capable of doing the tasks she had been doing for them.
- 9. In the sentence "She hadn't asked them to help because she didn't want to argue with them, or because it was faster and simpler to do it herself," the pronoun "She" refers to Jessica Stilwell, and the pronoun "it" refers to asking for help with household chores.
- 10. The text reflects changing societal norms by highlighting the shift from traditional gender roles where women solely managed household chores to a more equal distribution of responsibilities. It also discusses the evolving expectations teenagers have toward their parents' roles in chores.

Reading Comprehension Worksheet (2)

Life's Great Mysteries

- 1. Sarah Winchester was a woman who traveled to California after the deaths of her husband and child. She wanted to escape heartbreak and her obsessions awaited her there.
- 2. She inherited the Winchester gun and rifle company.
- 3. The medium believed Sarah's family was haunted by the ghosts of individuals killed by Winchester rifles, including her deceased daughter and husband.
- 4. The medium advised Sarah to build a huge house for the ghosts to keep them happy and protect her life.
- 5. An earthquake in 1906 led to the reduction in the number of floors.
- 6. Answers may include: a staircase leading to the ceiling, doors opening onto walls, secret passages.
- 7. She avoided sleeping in the same bedroom to confuse any evil spirits waiting for her.
- 8. Sarah communicated with good spirits by visiting the Blue Room, ringing a bell at midnight, and wearing special-colored robes.
- 9. The pronoun "them" refers to the good spirits she communicated with.
- 10. Answers will vary. This question encourages readers to think about the fascination with the unknown and the lure of mysterious stories.

Reading Comprehension Worksheet (3)

The World of Sport

- 1. Cristiano Ronaldo, Zlatan Ibrahimović, and Kaka.
- 2. Through advertising and sponsorship deals.
- 3. Tiger Woods.
- 4. $13.1 million (€10 million).
- 5. Nike.
- 6. Teachers, social workers, the President of the USA.
- 7. They argue that top athletes train hard to become the best in their sport.
- 8. Athletes, actors, and singers are considered entertainers, while other professionals contribute more directly to societal well-being.
- 9. The pronoun "their" refers to "athletes."
- 10. The author believes that income differences need to be reconsidered to ensure that all professionals contributing to society are appropriately valued and compensated.

Reading Comprehension Worksheet (4)

Shopping Therapy

- 1. The gTar's battery lasts between 6 to 8 hours when fully charged.
- 2. You can charge the gTar using the included USB charger or by plugging it into a standard USB dock on a computer.
- 3. The gTar changes guitar playing by making it simpler and less frustrating.
- 4. The gTar is currently compatible with the iPhone 4/4S and the iPhone 5.
- 5. The gTar app is available for free in the App Store.
- 6. Playing the gTar teaches you the basics needed to play on a regular guitar because its design is virtually identical.
- 7. The gTar is priced at $399 and is suitable for hobbyists, amateurs, and anyone wanting to learn guitar basics.
- 8. The gTar is different from video games like Guitar Hero as it's not a video game and is designed to feel like a genuine guitar.
- 9. the pronoun "It" refers to the gTar, and the pronoun "it's" is a contraction of "it is," referring to the same gTar.
- 10. The compatibility with specific iPhone models might be due to the gTar's reliance on the gTar app, which could be optimized for certain devices. This could affect its popularity if users with different smartphones feel excluded.

Reading Comprehension Worksheet (5)

The Environment

1. The main purpose of Kruger Sightings is to track and provide information about wildlife in Kruger National Park.
2. Kruger Sightings evolved from being a blog to a platform that collects information from visitors via mobile phones.
3. Visitors contribute by sending updates about animal sightings to Kruger Sightings using their mobile phones.
4. The website aims to protect rhinos from illegal killing for their valuable horns, which is a growing problem.
5. Plastic is harmful due to its long decomposition time and its contribution to environmental problems such as the Great Pacific Garbage Patch.
6. Daniel Burd managed to break down 43% of the plastic through his experiment on plastic decomposition.
7. Jason Lin started an e-waste recycling business to address the problem of e-waste and reduce the amount of electronic waste in landfills.
8. iReTron reduces the impact of e-waste by recycling and reselling old gadgets, preventing them from ending up in landfills.
9. The pronoun "He" in the sentence "He identified two types of bacteria that work together to decompose plastic" refers to "Daniel Burd," the 16-year-old student mentioned earlier in the text who conducted the experiment on plastic decomposition.
10. The Kruger Sightings website benefits visitors by helping them locate and view wildlife easily, enhancing their park experience. It also aids wildlife conservation by raising awareness and supporting efforts to protect rhinos from illegal activities.

Reading Comprehension Worksheet (6)

Crime

1. Adam grew up in a rough neighborhood with gangs, where crime was common.
2. Adam had a job at Mangold-Zaks, the investment bank.
3. He felt uncomfortable due to the excessive wealth and luxury at the party.
4. Adam discovered his boss, Barry Badoff, dead with a bloody knife on the floor.
5. Shock and terror had frozen him, making it difficult for him to explain himself.
6. The police arrested Adam because he was found in the room with the dead man and the knife.
7. Adam was facing the dilemma of how to prove his innocence when the evidence seemed against him.
8. Adam was shocked and panicked when he found his boss dead.
9. In the sentence "And seated behind it... no, it couldn't be ... a man ... a man with a bloodstained shirt ... his boss, Barry Badoff!", the pronoun "his" refers to Adam's boss, Barry Badoff.
10. Growing up in a rough neighbourhood with gangs might lead to negative assumptions and biases about someone's character when they face a serious situation. Society might perceive them as more likely to be involved in criminal activities, making it challenging for them to prove their innocence. Additionally, the person's past experiences and surroundings could impact their ability to handle such situations effectively.

Reading Comprehension Worksheet (7)

The Media

1. The main concern regarding print media is whether it is dying due to the popularity of digital media.
2. The newspaper industry has been hit hard by the Internet, as news is available for free online, reducing the willingness to pay for print newspapers.
3. Some newspapers offer full access to their digital version only to subscribers to generate revenue and cover costs.
4. An online newspaper has benefits such as cost savings, greater profits, and an interactive experience through reader comments.
5. Print books have advantages such as not causing headaches or eye strain, not requiring charging, and being more durable in various situations.
6. People enjoy holding, collecting, and physically interacting with print books, finding them more relaxing and user-friendly than electronic devices.
7. E-books might be less convenient if devices are stolen, break, or get damaged by sand or water.
8. People find print books more relaxing than electronic devices because they can be enjoyed without the potential distractions of screens and technology.
9. In the sentence "And what happens if your device is stolen or breaks?", the pronoun "your" refers to the reader's device.
10. The answer to the critical thinking question may vary based on the reader's perspective. Some might argue that while digital media is becoming more prevalent, print newspapers and books still hold value for those who appreciate the physical experience, collectability, and nostalgia associated with them. Others might contend that the convenience and portability of digital media will eventually lead to the decline of print media. The key is to provide logical reasoning and examples to support the chosen viewpoint.

Reading Comprehension Worksheet (8)

A Hard Day's Work

1. Richard Dunk's job is testing waterslides at Best Choice holiday resorts. He checks the height, speed, water amount, and safety of the slides.
2. Richard Dunk explains that exciting and safe waterslides are essential for attracting visitors to the resorts.
3. Richard Dunk's qualifications include a diploma in travel and tourism, and he has worked as an entertainment manager at Mediterranean resorts.
4. Richard Dunk finds his job as a waterslide tester unbelievable and enjoyable.
5. Visitors to Best Choice Malta can enjoy thrilling slides like the Monster slide and the Black Tunnel, all tested for safety and fun.
6. The two standout candidates for the Product Development Position are Richard Dunk and Erica Martin.
7. George Williamson describes Richard Dunk as someone who understands the concept of a fun family holiday due to his work experience at Mediterranean resorts.
8. Erica Martin is younger than Richard Dunk and has qualifications in marketing that make her a strong candidate.
9. The pronoun "He's" refers to Richard Dunk.
10. Waterslides need to be both exciting and safe because excitement attracts guests to the resorts, but safety is crucial to ensure the well-being of the guests and prevent accidents that could lead to negative experiences and legal issues. Balancing excitement and safety creates a positive reputation for the resorts and encourages repeat business.

Reading Comprehension Worksheet (9)

Getting Away

1. The main attraction of the Golden Coast Holiday Village in Devon is the Wave surfer surfing simulator.
2. The Wave surfer simulator creates waves that simulate the experience of surfing, allowing people to surf or boogie-board even when the sea is calm.
3. A Wave surfer session at Golden Coast costs £20 and includes equipment and tuition.
4. Body-zorbing is an activity where players crash into each other inside cushioned balls, and it can be experienced at Camping La Croix du Vieux Pont.
5. Besides body-zorbing, other activities at Camping La Croix du Vieux Pont's teen club include movie-making classes and bus trips to Disneyland Paris.
6. The Youth Hostel Association offers camps with various themes, such as extreme activities, performing arts, and leadership development.
7. An example of a camp focusing on survival skills is the "Action Adventure" camp where participants can test their survival skills in the wilderness.
8. The Teen Rangers program is for ages 12 to 15 and offers three days of high-energy outdoor activities and two evenings of social activities.
9. The pronoun "These" refers to the "high-adrenaline pursuits" mentioned earlier in the text.
10. Considering the various options provided for teen summer camps (extreme activities, performing arts, survival skills, leadership development), which one do you think would provide the most valuable skills and experiences for teenagers in today's world? Explain your choice.

Reading Comprehension Worksheet (10)

Where on Earth?

1. UNESCO seeks to identify, protect, and preserve the cultural and natural heritage of the world that is valuable to all human beings.
2. Heritage refers to what we receive from the past, live with today, and pass on to future generations.
3. No, cultural and natural heritage cannot be replaced because they are sources of life, inspiration, and uniqueness that hold historical, cultural, and natural significance.
4. The UNESCO World Heritage List includes 981 properties.
5. The three categories of properties on the World Heritage List are cultural, natural, and mixed.
6. The ten criteria that sites must meet to be included on UNESCO's World Heritage List involve their cultural, historical, and ecological significance.
7. The Mausoleum of the First Qin Emperor is located in China.
8. The terracotta warriors at the Mausoleum of the First Qin Emperor are significant because they guard the tomb of the emperor who united China, and they are artistic masterpieces associated with historical events.
9. The pronoun "which" refers to the Arabian Oryx Sanctuary.
10. Critical Thinking Question (MARKED): UNESCO places emphasis on conserving and protecting cultural and natural heritage sites because these sites are not only sources of historical and cultural significance but also contribute to tourism, education, and the preservation of biodiversity. They offer insights into human history and natural processes, fostering a sense of identity and understanding among different cultures. Additionally, they can drive economic growth through tourism and promote environmental awareness. By protecting these sites, UNESCO ensures that they remain accessible and meaningful for current and future generations.

Reading Comprehension Worksheet (11)

High-Tech World

1. On a typical Saturday afternoon, you might be listening to music, your sister could be surfing the web, and your parents could be watching TV.
2. An "off-grid" area is a region that lacks access to public utilities such as electricity.
3. People in disadvantaged communities cope with the lack of electricity by using kerosene lamps and wood-burning stoves.
4. Solar technology helps address the lack of electricity by converting sunlight into energy.
5. Kinetic energy is the energy an object possesses due to its motion. It is used to generate electricity by technologies like the Soccket.
6. The Soccket is a special football that generates electricity when played with. It stores this energy in a battery, providing a power source for lighting and cooking in developing countries.
7. The lamp is charged by attaching it to the Soccket. It can be used as a tabletop lamp or a torch.
8. Children in off-grid communities can play with a single Soccket ball as a team and still have their own personal light for reading and homework each night.
9. The pronoun "it" refers to the Soccket.
10. Critical Thinking Question (MARKED): Initiatives like the Soccket and the lamp produced by Uncharted Play demonstrate the power of innovation and technology to address pressing global issues. By combining play with technology, these initiatives provide practical solutions to the lack of electricity in disadvantaged communities. They not only fulfill basic needs like lighting and cooking but also promote education and better quality of life. These solutions show that technology can be harnessed for social impact and sustainability. To further tackle similar challenges, exploring partnerships, investing in renewable energy, and leveraging local resources could lead to more innovative solutions that benefit communities and the environment.

Reading Comprehension Worksheet (12)

Happy to Help!

1. Seeing a homeless man eating from a rubbish bin inspired Hannah Taylor to start The Ladybug Foundation.
2. Hannah Taylor chose the ladybug as a symbol for her charity because it represents good luck, which she believes the homeless need.
3. Hannah Taylor raised funds for her charity by painting empty baby-food jars like ladybugs and asking businesses to put small change in them.
4. The main goal of Kids Saving The Rainforest (KSTR) was to save the local rainforests and endangered wildlife, particularly the Mono Titi or squirrel monkeys.
5. KSTR addressed the dangers faced by squirrel monkeys by creating 'monkey bridges' to help them cross areas with roads or electrical cables.
6. The objective of Mary's Meals charity is to introduce school meal programs for hungry children in various countries to encourage education and fight poverty.
7. Martha Payne got involved in raising money for Mary's Meals after realizing the contrast between her own school meals and the hunger experienced by many children.
8. Mary's Meals charity feeds more than 750,000 children every school day.
9. The pronoun "She" refers to Hannah Taylor.
10. Critical Thinking Question (MARKED): The stories of Hannah Taylor, Janine Licare, Aislin Livingstone, and Martha Payne underscore the fact that age is not a barrier to making a difference. These young individuals identified issues in their communities or beyond, and through their determination and innovative thinking, they initiated impactful solutions. Their stories highlight the power of empathy, compassion, and the willingness to take action. These examples could inspire other young people to recognize their potential to contribute positively to society. By showcasing these stories through various platforms and educational programs, young individuals may be encouraged to step up and address pressing challenges, fostering a sense of responsibility and social consciousness.