Mystery Shopper

My name is Mustafa and I'm a mystery shopper. Companies pay me to visit their shops and pretend to be an ordinary customer. After my visit, I write a report about my experience. I check if the shop is tidy, if the assistants are helpful, and if the changing rooms are clean. I started this job when I was a student because I needed flexible working hours. The best thing about my job is the variety - I visit different types of shops and sometimes even restaurants or hotels. However, the job isn't perfect. Sometimes there isn't much work, and some companies don't pay well.

1. What is Mustafa's job?
2. What does he do after visiting a shop?
3. Why did he start this job?
4. What does he like about his job?
5. What are the disadvantages of his job?

(نموذج إجابة مقترح)

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing to complain about a pair of trainers I bought from your website on 15th October. When they arrived, they were the wrong size. I returned them immediately and asked for the correct size. However, the replacement was also the wrong colour. This is unacceptable.

I believe you should send me the correct trainers and refund the delivery cost. I look forward to your reply.

Yours faithfully,
Ali Hassan
