Literature spot:

"Happily, however, for Mr Fogg, the animal's instruction in this direction had not gone far, and the elephant still preserved its natural gentleness. Kiouni — this was the name of the elephant— could doubtless travel rapidly for a long time, and, in default of any other means of conveyance, Mr Fogg resolved to hire him..."

1. How do we know that the elephant is not aggressive?
2. Mr Fogg insisted to hire the elephant for two reasons. Write them down.

They soon reached a small hut. Enclosed within some high palings, was the animal in question. An Indian came out of the hut, and, at their request, conducted them within the enclosure.

3. Which words tell us that the elephant was kept safely away from direct contact with humans?

'Passepartout, who had now rejoined his master, made a wry grimace, as he thought of his magnificent, but too frail Indian shoes. After a moment's hesitation, he said, 'Monsieur, I think I have found a means of conveyance'.

4. What kind of facial expression is a wry grimace?."

'Where are we?' asked Sir Francis.

At the hamlet of Kholby.'

'Do we stop here?

'Certainly. The railway isn't finished.'

5. What does the word hamlet suggest?
6. Why can't the train continue its journey from Kholby to Allahabad?

The elephant, which was reared, not to be an animal that merely carried things around, but for warlike purposes, was half-domesticated.

7. Why did the Indian man decide to rear an elephant?

Phileas Fogg, without getting in the least flurried, then proposed to purchase the animal outright and at first offered a thousand pounds for him. The Indian, perhaps he was going to make a great bargain, still refused. At two thousand pounds the Indian yielded.

- 8- What tells you that Mr Fogg was so calm?
- 9- Why did the Indian refuse the offer many times?

The earth was green, the sky was blue

I saw and heard one sunny morn

A skylark hang between the two

A singing speck above the corn

10. What does the word "speck" suggest?

A stage below, in gay accord

White butterflies danced on the wing

And still the singing skylark soared

And silent sank and soared to sing

11. What does the word "accord" suggest?

The cornfield stretched a tender green

To right and left beside my walks.

I knew he had a nest unseen

Somewhere among the million stalks

12. What does the word "tender" suggest?

13. What does a bird do in a nest ?

14. Which part of a plant is the stalk?

And as I paused to hear his song

While swift the sunny moments slid

Perhaps his mate sat listening long

And listened longer than I did

15. What does the word "swift" suggest?

16. Find reference to another listener, apart from the poet herself. Who or what is this listener?

17. How do we know that the poet leaves the cornfield before the skylark has stopped singing?

18. Find an example of alliteration.

Answers: 1- the elephant still preserved its natural gentleness. 2- it could doubtless travel rapidly for a long time, and, in default of any other means of conveyance. 3- Enclosed within some high palings, was the animal in question. 4- shows pain or unhappiness. 5- that there aren't many houses or people in the area. 6- the railway isn't finished. 7- for a warlike purposes. 8- without getting in the least flurried. 9- perhaps he was going to make a great bargain 10- something small. 11- it is in agreement. 12- something fresh and young. 13- it lays eggs. 14- it's the long, upright part of the plant that supports the leaves. 15- fast. 16- the bird's mate 17- And listened longer than I did. 18- listening long.
