Comprehensions

You are going to read the following story about a man who had a strange story ended with his death . Read the passage then answer the following questions.

I was very interested while listening to my friend telling me the following story which he had read in a newspaper. It was a hot noon, and the few people walking along the street stood struck dumb gazing up a man in the air little by little falling down to the earth. His wide new garment acted as a parachute when his foot slipped off the wooden board he was standing on while painting the front of a high house. It was funny that he fell down on his feet inside the box of a lorry that happened to be passing by at the time. When the people shouted, the lorry driver stopped and the man jumped off delighted at being saved. If the lorry had been a second later, it would have knocked him down dead, so he insisted on giving the driver a treat. He crossed the street to buy him a coca cola. On his way back he was so excited that he couldn't avoid being struck down by a motorcycle running fast a long the street. He fell down on the ground. The people hurried to help him rise to his feet, but they found him dead.

Festivals around the world

1 Every year in July, people in Ubon Ratchathani Thailand celebrate the Candle Festival. Tourists from all over the country come to Ubon to look at huge wax candles that are paraded through the streets. There are music, dancers, a huge market and even a competition for artists to design the best candle.

2 In other countries, there are different festivals. Some are really strange. One of the weirdest festivals in the world is Day of the Dead. Day of the Dead is celebrated on November 1st in Mexico, Ecuador, Guatemala and other parts of Central and South America. Families gather to pray to dead relatives and ask them to return for just one night.

3 Pan de los muertos (bread of the dead) is baked in the shape of skulls and crossbones, and a toy is hidden inside each loaf. The person who bites into the toy is said to have good luck. People decorate their homes and gravesites with food, candles, candy skulls and flowers to welcome the dead back to earth. People dress up as skeletons and parade through the streets. Day of the Dead sounds like a scary event, but it's a happy time to celebrate and remember the lives of dead family members.

1. What does the underlined word (them) in paragraph (2) refer to?

- A. families
- B. tourists
- C. dead relatives
- D. dead families

2. What the closest meaning to the underlined word “weird”?
