

1-Fill in the spaces with the suitable word:

- 1- A starfish can swim in the water with small _____
- 2- All worms have _____ bodies.
- 3- Animals with jointed legs have many legs with many _____ .
- 4- The fish breathe through their _____ and swim in the water with their _____
- 5- Older amphibians live on land and breathe through their _____
- 6- A group of fish eggs is called _____ .
- 7- A _____ is made up of bones that help to support the body.

2-Ticke (√) the correct statements and cross (X) the wrong ones:

- 1- Birds have teeth; they eat seeds, insects, plants and small animals. ()
- 2- A crocodile has wet, scaly skins. ()
- 3- All fish have backbone. ()
- 4- The tortoises and lizards lay soft eggs. ()
- 5- Animals with shells have hard bodies. ()
- 6- The eggs of fish and amphibians have hard shell. ()
- 7- Animals with spiny skin have rough skin with sharp needle. ()

8- Mammals have babies; the mother feed its babies on milk. ()

3- Match between the animals and their outer covering:

A cat	feathers
A fish	rough skin with sharp needle
A crocodile	hair
A bird	scales
A starfish	dry scaly skin

4-Name the classes of animals with backbones:

5- Name the classes of animals without backbones:
