READING SECTION

(I) 1- Read the passage, then answer the questions below :-

Martin and his wife were driving to Bangkok. Martin was a wildlife photographer. He liked travelling a lot to places where he could take photographs of animals. He asked his wife to stay in the car to go into the jungle alone to take some photographs of the falls. His wife advised him not to go alone but he told her that he would come back in about half an hour. When Martin went into the jungle, he could hear the sound of the falls and began to walk in that direction. Martin could not find the falls and he was lost. His wife began to get worried about her husband because the sun was going down, and it would be dark.

They didn't have mobile phones. She asked herself what she could do to help her husband, ..... she got out of the car and walked into the jungle to follow his footprints, but she could not because there were a lot of plants, so she went to the nearest police station. The policemen didn't understand her at first because they could not speak English, but she used her body language to explain. They drove as fast as they could to save Martin. After three hours, they could find him. He was completely tired and afraid.

2 - Read the text below and answer the questions that follow :-

I will never forget the first time I went to a professional football match. It was my favorite team, FC Barcelona, against Real Madrid—in Madrid. I arrived at the stadium wearing a red-and-blue striped shirt with a matching scarf. Red and blue are the colors of the Barcelona team. At my seat, the people looked at me as if I was strange. Far away, on the other side of the stadium, there was a small group of people wearing red-and-blue-striped shirts. My heart sank. I had bought a ticket for the wrong section of the stadium! I was surrounded by Real Madrid fans.

When the game finally started, most of the crowd forgot about me. Then, the worst thing happened: Real Madrid scored a goal. Everyone shouted and sang! A huge man grabbed my scarf and ran up and down the steps. That amused the Real Madrid supporters. They all were laughing aloud. Then someone took the scarf from the man, and I never saw it again.

In the second half, Barcelona scored. Everyone around me quieted down. Minutes later, Barcelona scored again. The Barcelona supporters on the far side of the stadium cheered. I stayed calmly. Barcelona won the game. Real supporters left the stadium sadly without even looking at me .

A – Answer the following questions .
