Attention

- For this semester, teachers are to use the new core resources, Portal To English B series.
- The number of days/ blocks allocated for each unit differs according to the nature/ level of difficulty of the unit.
- The core teaching and learning resources are full and extensive. Make the most of the materials in order to meet the particular needs of your students. It is important to plan lessons carefully with these needs in mind.
- It is essential to refer to the key notes provided for teachers for reinforcement and learning support throughout the course.
- The secondary resources contain a sperate section on 'Extra Practice' with additional practice exercises that teachers can draw on for the purpose of differentiation, consolidation or reinforcement to meet specific learning needs.
- The writing sections in all modules and writing reference together fully cover the writing standards.
