Part two: Reading

Reading Comprehension: Directions: Read the passage and answer the questions.

In Italy, people shake hands and smile when they meet. It is a good idea to give a present when you visit someone's house. The best presents are some pink flowers or chocolates. Don't forget to wrap the chocolates in colourful paper! But be careful! Don't use black or purple-coloured paper! They are unlucky colours!

In China, people wrap presents in beautiful paper; yellow or pink are good colours, but red is the best because it's their lucky colour. Always give and receive presents with both hands. But be careful! Don't open the present in front of the person who gave it to you!

In New Zealand, people shake hands when they meet. When you are eating, it isn't polite to put your elbows on the table. And when you visit someone's house, it is polite to give chocolates, flowers or a book about your country as a present.
