Alfie, Molly, Max and Lulu were in school today. They were in a new class. Their teacher was Miss Carey. There was a timetable on the wall. The lessons were on the timetable.

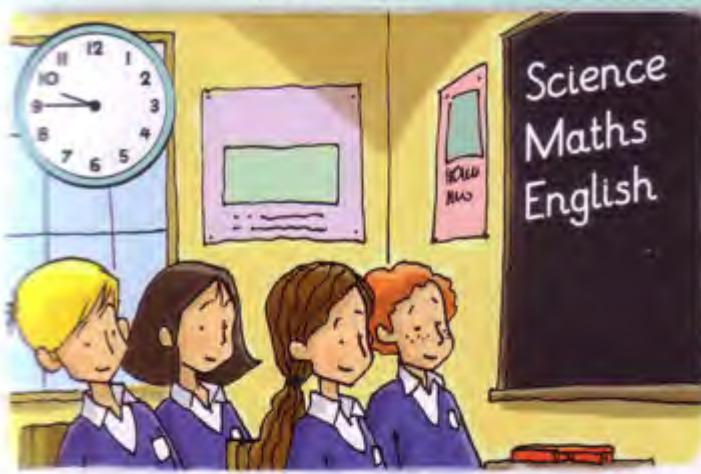

The first lesson was at quarter past eight. It was Maths. There were lots of big numbers but the sums were easy.

The second lesson was Science. There was a pretty plant in a jar. It was very interesting.

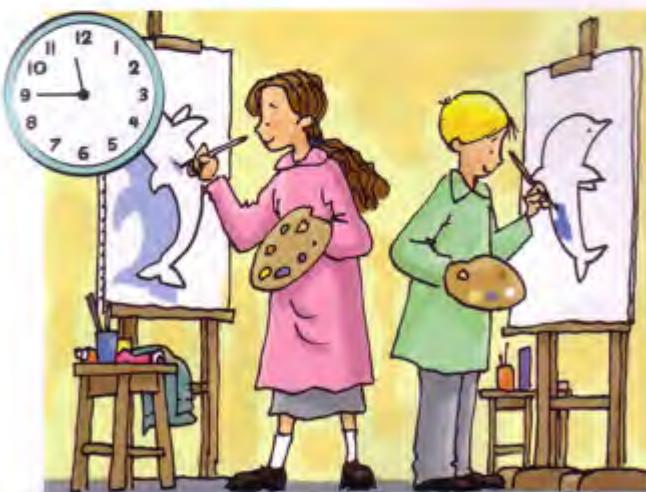

The third lesson was at quarter to ten. It was English. It was difficult. There were lots of new words on the board. The children learned them.

At half past ten it was break. Alfie, Molly, Max and Lulu were in the playground. Their friends were in the playground, too. It was fun.

The fourth lesson was at eleven o'clock. It was Sports. The children played basketball. It was exciting.

At quarter to twelve the lesson was Art. There were paints and brushes. The children painted dolphins. It was very quiet in the art lesson.

At half past twelve the lesson was Music. The children were in the music room. There was a piano and there were three drums and two guitars. It was not a quiet lesson!

Jack and the beanstalk

Jack lived on a small farm with his mother. They were very poor. One day Jack's mother said, "My dear son, please take our cow to the town. Sell her. Come back with the money."

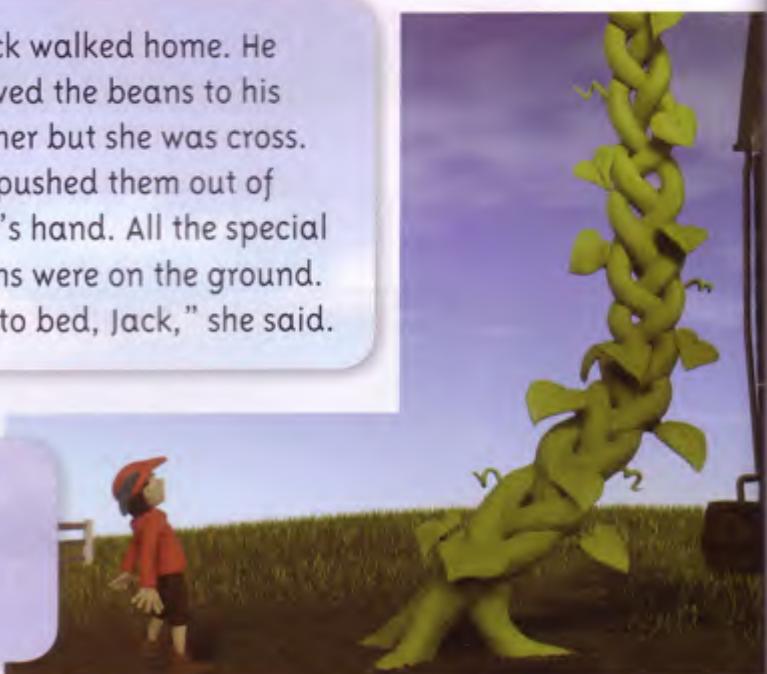

Jack walked across the fields to the river. A man was on the bridge.
"That's a beautiful cow," he said. "I've got five special beans. Please give your cow to me and take these beans."

He showed the beans to Jack. "They're very pretty colours," said Jack. "Please take my cow and give your beans to me." Jack smiled. He was pleased with the special beans.

Jack walked home. He showed the beans to his mother but she was cross. She pushed them out of Jack's hand. All the special beans were on the ground. "Go to bed, Jack," she said.

In the morning, Jack looked out of the window.
A huge beanstalk was next to the house.
The top of the beanstalk was above the clouds.
Jack climbed the beanstalk.

At the top was a huge castle. Jack counted six tall, gold towers. He opened the large door and walked quietly inside.

An ugly giant lived in the castle. He was asleep in the huge kitchen. Next to the enormous giant was a tiny brown hen in a small gold cage. The hen looked sadly at Jack.

"Please, help me," it said. "I always live in this cage. I cannot walk. I cannot open my wings. I never see the sky."

Jack opened the cage and picked up the little hen. He walked quickly to the beanstalk and he climbed down.

Just then the giant opened his eyes. "Where is my hen?" he shouted. The angry giant walked to the beanstalk and he looked down. "I can see you!" he roared at Jack. "I am coming!"

Jack jumped onto the ground.
He picked up an axe and chopped down the beanstalk.

The giant did not climb down the beanstalk.

The little hen clucked happily. A shiny gold egg was on the ground. Jack and his mother were surprised. It was a very special hen!

Reading

The American pioneers

A hundred years ago many people travelled across America. They needed houses and fields. They were pioneers. A pioneer does something first. These people travelled across America first.

They stopped near a river. They needed wood and water. They used axes and they chopped down trees. The horses pulled the logs with ropes. The men lifted one log on top of another log. These were the walls of their house.

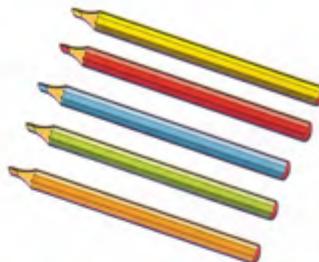

Inside there were two rooms. In one room there was a fire. The women cooked food in big pots. The children helped. They picked up wood for the fire. They fetched water from the river.

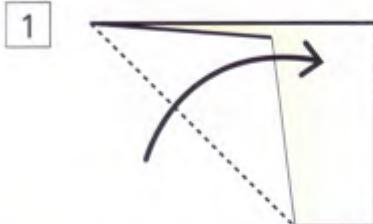

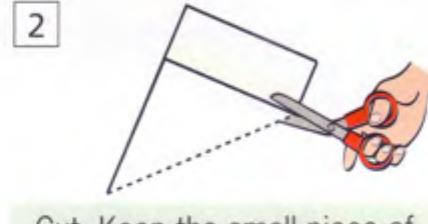

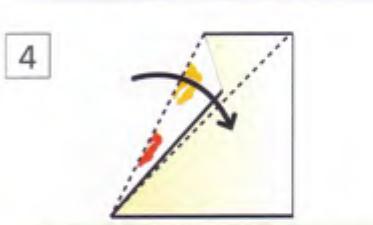

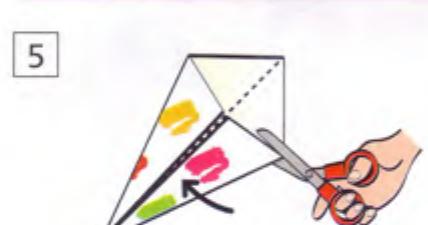

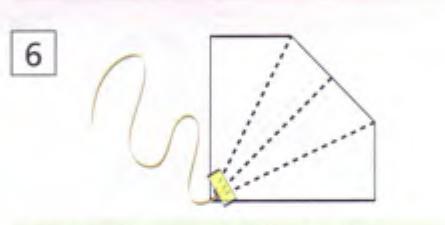

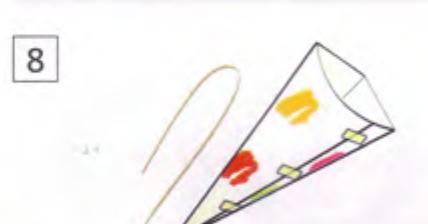

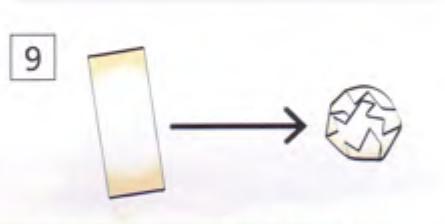

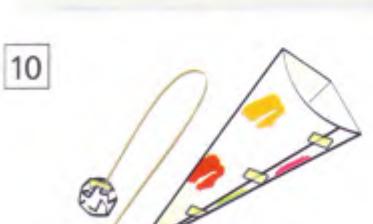

There were not many toys. The girls skipped with a rope. The boys played skittles. All the children played a game with a cup and a ball. You can make this game, too.

Cup and ball game

You need:

1 Fold the paper.
2 Cut. Keep the small piece of paper.
3 Open out the big piece. Turn it over. Colour it.
4 Turn over the paper again. Fold it.
5 Fold it again and cut.
6 Open the paper. Stick the string onto it.
7 Put side 1 on top of side 2.
8 Stick it.
9 Make the small piece of paper into a ball.
10 Stick it on the end of the string.

Children! We have a visitor this morning.

Good morning! I'm Gary West. I work for Channel 10.

The TV channel? Wow!

Can you tell me about the farm?

The farm's great but last night there was a terrible storm.

Look at the tractor!

Look at the broken windows and the roofs!

But there are carpenters here with saws and hammers and nails.

The builder is fixing a new metal gate.

The plumber is fixing new plastic pipes.

But Mr Oats, the farmer, is a very poor man.

Hmm... Do you know about 'My TV'?

Yes, it's a competition for children.

That's right. The winners make a TV programme.

Just a minute! I've got a great idea!

What's that, Max?

We can enter the competition!

Perhaps we can make a TV programme!

We can tell people about Pear Tree Farm!

Perhaps we can save Henry!

1 Read about the game of skittles.

Pioneer children played skittles.

They used a ball and nine tall pieces of wood.

They rolled the ball at the skittles.

You can make a small game of skittles. You can use paper.

This is what you do:

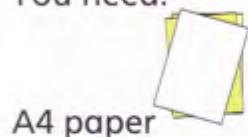

You draw nine squares. You cut the squares. You keep the small piece of paper.

You colour the squares. You roll them then you stick them. You make nine skittles.

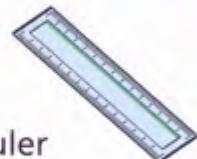

You squash the small piece of paper into a ball. Now you can play the game.

2 Look at the pictures. Complete the instructions.

Let's listen to music!

Do you like music? Do you listen at home? Look at the pictures on these pages. These machines play music. There are old machines and new machines.

cylinder · · · · ·

First there was the phonograph. Thomas Edison invented it in 1877. He recorded music onto the cylinder. The cylinder is wood and metal. It turned round and round. It played the music.

disc · · · · ·

After that there was the gramophone. It played round, flat discs. There were songs on the discs. Usually, there was only one singer and a piano.

Many people liked these big gramophones. A family listened together in their living room.

Next, people invented the microphone. They recorded big bands. There were lots of drums, trumpets and singers. It was very exciting. Lots of people wanted the music.

microphone

The new gramophones were smaller. They were plastic and wood. The plastic was bright and colourful. The discs were plastic, too, and they were big.

CD

Later, people invented a smaller plastic disc. It was the CD. You can play a CD on a small machine. This is a CD player. You can easily use this in your bedroom.

This is a very small machine. It's an iPod*. People can listen to music in the street or on the bus. They use earphones.

The International Games are fantastic!

The Bridge Hotel
116 River Street
South City

24th July

Dear Grandma,

I hope you are well. We are all fine. Are you having good weather? The weather is very good here. It is getting hotter and hotter! I am having a great time. The International Games are fantastic. Mum and Dad are having a great time, too.

On Monday morning we went to the gymnastics competition. There was a very young man in the competition. He was only sixteen and he came from Russia. He was very strong. We all sat quietly and watched him. He was amazing. At the end, we all jumped up and clapped loudly. He won a silver medal and he smiled happily.

On Monday afternoon we watched the men's judo competition. People wear big white trousers and jackets for judo. They leave their shoes next to a big square mat then they step onto it. They hold onto each other. They push and pull and turn. One person falls down and the other person wins a point. It is an old sport and it is very interesting.

On Tuesday we went to the sailing competition. We saw boats from all over the world. It was windy and the boats sailed really fast. The huge sails were beautiful bright colours. A boat with a blue and green sail won the gold medal.

Yesterday morning we watched the cycling competition. The men went round and round the track faster and faster. It was very exciting. In the afternoon we watched the show jumping. The horses jumped over big gates and over water. They went really fast, too.

Do you remember? Dad likes skiing. The skiing competition is in December. People travel to the mountains. There is lots of snow. They ski down the mountains. Mum and Dad went last year. They liked it a lot.

I am sending you some photos of the sports. They are Dad's pictures. They are really great.

Lots of love from

Revision 2

1 Listen and read. Read again. Talk about Pear Tree Farm then act out the story.

Hello! Welcome to 'My TV'.

Our programme is about Pear Tree Farm. and Mr Oats, the farmer.

Mr Oats loves his farm but it is very old. Is that right, Mr Oats?

Yes. I need a new barn. The gates are falling down and there is water in the yard.

The carpenters and builders came to the farm. They fetched new wood and metal.

They lifted the wood onto the barn.

They used saws, hammers and nails.

They mended the barn, the stable and the gates.

The plumber fixed the water. He used plastic.

The painter painted all the doors.

How much does this work cost, Mr Oats?

How can I pay the builders? I can sell Henry.

That's terrible!
Poor Henry!

But Mr Oats did not sell Henry. We entered the 'My TV' competition.

And we won!

We are all very happy!
Goodbye! Goodbye!

Welcome home!

Did you have a good day?
Did you climb the tall tower
In the city today?

We went to the tower
And we climbed to the top,
Then we had a great time
In the city toy shop.

Did you see the trams?
Did you have a ride?
Did you see the castle?
And did you go inside?

We saw lots of trams
But we didn't have a ride.

Aunt Jemima's earring

"This new mall is huge!" said Anna.

"Yes," said Aunt Jemima. "It's bigger than the old mall and it's nicer, too. There are four escalators and a lift. It opened yesterday. It's very exciting."

"I need a new computer disc," said Uncle Bob. "Stay with Aunt Jemima, Anna. We mustn't lose you." He went into the computer shop. Anna and Aunt Jemima waited outside.

Anna looked around. There were lots of people. She looked at the floor. Suddenly she saw a small grey ring. She picked up the ring. It was metal but it wasn't shiny. Anna put it in her pocket.

Uncle Bob came back and they went to the clothes shop. Aunt Jemima wanted a new scarf. She put a pretty scarf round her neck. She looked in the mirror.

"Oh no!" she said. "My earring! It's missing. We must go back to the computer shop."

They looked on the floor outside the computer shop. Then Anna heard a sob. Next to her was a small boy.

"Oh, dear. What's the matter?" asked Anna.

"I dropped my new car," said the boy. "I lost a piece and now it doesn't go." He cried and a big tear fell on the floor.

"Did you lose a ring?" Anna asked.

"Yes," said the boy. "I looked on the floor but I didn't find it. I found this but it isn't mine." The boy had a shiny silver ring in his hand.

"That's Aunt Jemima's earring!" Anna put her hand in her pocket and took out the grey metal ring. "Is this yours?" she asked.

The boy fixed the ring into his car. "Yes," he said. "Thank you."

Anna took the earring to Aunt Jemima. She was very happy. "Now let's have a nice cup of tea in the café," she said.

How do they do that?

The city streets are busy today. People are walking through the market. There are shops and colourful stalls – and there are street shows!

This woman is a juggler. She is wearing colourful clothes. Sometimes she juggles with balls. Today she is juggling with long, fat sticks. She throws a stick into the air, then another and another and another. She catches each stick. Then she quickly throws it again. The sticks go round in a circle. She is juggling. A small boy is watching her. It's amazing!

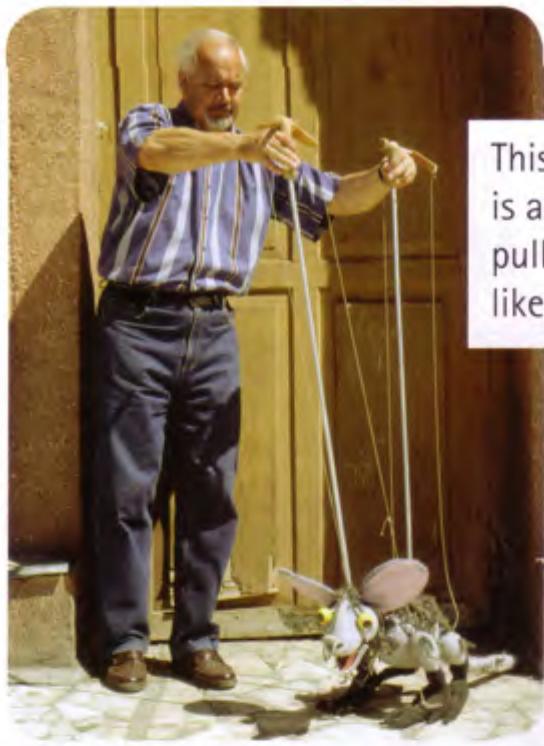

This man is a stilt walker. He is taller than the walls around the park. He is the tallest person in the park. His clothes are very long. Does he look funny? He is walking on stilts. The stilts are under his trousers. Stilt walking is not easy. He mustn't fall down.

This man is a fire blower. He holds a stick. There is a small flame at the end. He blows over the small flame. He must be careful. There is fire! How does he do it?

stilts

This man is a puppeteer. He has lots of puppets. This one is a dragon. There are strings on the puppets. The man pulls the strings and the puppets walk and sit. They look like tiny people and animals.

A reporter is talking to the puppeteer. Let's listen.

Reporter: Did you make your puppets?

Puppeteer: Yes, I made all of them.

Reporter: What did you use?

Puppeteer: I used wood. I always use wood.

Reporter: Why?

Puppeteer: Because I can cut it easily. Look at this puppet. First I made a round head. Next I cut long, thin pieces. They were the arms and legs. Then I cut a fatter, wider piece. That was the body.

Reporter: What did you do next?

Puppeteer: I made the clothes. Then I fixed the strings onto the puppet.

Reporter: What is this puppet?

Puppeteer: He's a boy. His name is Jack. This puppet is bigger. She is Jack's mother. This puppet is the biggest. He is the giant.

Reporter: Are these puppets for Jack and the beanstalk?

Puppeteer: That's right. That's the show today. It's starting now.

Festivals in different seasons

An autumn festival in China

The autumn is harvest time. The moon looks very big. People hang up lanterns and eat round moon cakes.

A winter festival in Japan

People make giant statues. They use paper and wood. They take the statues through the streets. Then they burn them and there are fantastic fireworks.

A summer festival in Scotland Actors and musicians come from all over the world. There are plays every day. They tell new stories and they tell old stories, too.

Do you know the story of Androcles  and the lion  ? It is a very old story.

There is also an emperor , two soldiers   and a storyteller.

Androcles was a slave. His master was not kind. One day, Androcles ran away.

He ran through the forest for hours and hours. At last he came to a stream.

Is there any water here? I am very thirsty. I must drink some water.

Grrr!

Oh! It's a huge lion. I can't run away. I am very, very tired.

Grrr owww!

Oh, you aren't jumping on me, Mr Lion. Why not?

OWWW!

What is wrong? Is there something in your paw?

Ooh! Ooh!

Oh, look! A big thorn! I can pull it out. Stay still, Mr Lion. ... There! It is out.

Prrrr...prrrr...

Are you going now? Well, goodbye, Mr Lion.

The lion went away into the forest. The next day, some soldiers found Androcles. They took him to the emperor.

Androcles! You ran away. Now you must go and fight a lion.

Me? Fight a lion? Oh, no. The lion is going to eat me.

Soldiers! Throw Androcles to the lion.

Come on, Androcles. Come this way, go through the gate. Goodbye!

Ooh! There's the lion. It's very big.

Grr!

The lion is going to eat Androcles!

English World

the adventure starts here!

English World is the first ever integrated ten-level print and digital English course for primary and secondary schools. Written by the authors of the best-selling Way Ahead and Macmillan English, the course aims to give learners confidence in speaking, listening, reading and writing. Thorough grammar and skills work is applied in natural contexts in the real world through dialogues and cross-curricular material. Independent learning is promoted through portfolios, projects and the use of the dictionaries.

The visually stunning printed resources are complemented by electronic materials for use with an interactive whiteboard and videos of all dialogues using native-speaker students in context, together with a complete teacher training package with video masterclasses. Other features include a test builder, animated posters, interactive phonics activities and singalong versions of songs.

The adventure continues in Levels 3 and 4 of English World where children encounter more challenging texts and activity types. Level 3 is for children who are starting to use language more fluently.

'We believe that learning should be enjoyable - hard work, too, but at the same time something that children will find interesting and motivating.'
