Dear Omar,

How are you and your family? I hope you are well. Last weekend we went on trip to Qatar National Library with my class. We went early in the morning by the school bus.

When we arrived there, we all stood in a queue and a very nice man guided us to all the sections of the library.

First, we visited the children section where we saw lots of children stories from different countries and everyone chose a story to read. I read about Sinbad the sailor who was from Baghdad and had many adventures in the sea.

After that, we visited the section of the ancient books that had wonderful group of very old books. We had to be very careful because the books in this section is very valuable.

At twelve, we left the library and went to jungle zone where we had lots of fun and played lots of interesting games.

Finally, we went to restaurant area and had our lunch I had Italian pizza with cheese.

It was a very nice weekend with my friends.

Write to me soon

Yours

Hamad
