Introduction

Based on the vision of the Ministry of Education; to achieve quality and distinguished education that suits the needs of students, and potentially provides learners with the basic skills necessary to adapt to the requirements and challenges of life, equipped with knowledge, skills and values that help build their personalities in a balanced way, this learning material was based on basic concepts and outcomes of the English language subject for Seventh graders. This material forms the basis of students' competence, and focuses on the most important concepts that enable the student to smoothly move to the next stage, thus, without a learning gap. The concepts were selected and condensed, then presented in a light manner to ensure more indulgence in the learning process through activating self-learning strategy. In addition, parents are invited to participate in this learning process.

The educational content in this booklet includes four topics, each of which includes the basic concepts of learning English language skills.

Therefore, this content was based on achieving the following outcomes:

- talk about places in Jordan, weather and geographical features by using correct intonation for questions and statements
- scan simple written materials to preview them for general content before starting to read)
- express pride in Jordan and the country's heritage

Dear Reem

How are you? I'm writing this letter to invite you to our school festival next week. It will be fun. You can see many traditional customs, food, mosaics and statues.

There is a book fair and a story teller. You can buy beautiful books by Jordanian writers.

I hope to see you there.

Best wishes

Leena

Wadi Rum: A Place to Relax

By: Ahmad

Jordan is a small country and large part of it is a desert. Wadi Rum is part of that desert, but my favourite place in Jordan. I went with my family to Wadi Rum. We stayed there for two days. My father was driving through the desert highway. Finally, we reached my best place for relaxing. We saw the beautiful nature of the desert. My three sisters were so happy to see the camping area. We prepared the camp area and set the tent. We cooked our food on the campfire. We walked through the beautiful valley. We had a great time.
