Read the following passage then answer the questions below:

It was my first time to go fishing. My father always goes fishing alone. This time I told him that I must accompany him. My father told me to bring my backpack and put my things inside it. We set off early morning. My father taught me how to put the bait in the hook then throw the hook in water. Luckily, we caught lots of fish, but they were small. I was luckier than my father, as I caught a big fish called Merline. I couldn't pull it out. My father was careful when he pulled the Merline out. When we got home, my mother cooked the fish. It was really a stunning day. I enjoyed and learnt a lot.
