Ron's Ambulance Ride

The score was one to one in the last football game of the year when Ron had the chance to score a goal. He was watching the ball going into the goal. GOOOAL! Ron turned back and as he was running, he slipped and fell. He twisted his knee. He sat on the field, but he was in much pain.

Ron's coach, Mr. Jones, called an ambulance, and it arrived in just a few minutes. A man wearing a blue uniform came out of the ambulance and sat down close to Ron.

"Hi, Ron. I'm Tony," said the man. "I am here to help you feel better."

Tony looked at Ron's knee. It was red and swollen. "I think you sprained your knee. You need to go to the hospital," he said.

Tony helped Ron into the ambulance and got in the back. As the ambulance started to move, Tony put a cold bag of ice on Ron's knee.

"This should make you feel better," said Tony.

Ron looked around the ambulance. It was filled with different equipment and medicines. He asked Tony how he knew what medicine and equipment to use. Tony explained that he took classes to learn how to take care of sick people.

Ron felt the ambulance slow down. They were at the hospital. His knee was not as red and swollen. Tony helped Ron inside the hospital. The doctor examined Ron's knee.
