Directions: Read the passage and answer the questions:

Bread baking now and then

Did you know that bread is one of the earliest human inventions? Bread is a food made of flour and water. Scientists have learned that humans have been eating bread for 30,000 years. Ancient Egyptians ate a lot of bread. In fact, because they had no potatoes or rice, bread was the most important source in the ancient Egyptian's food.

At the end of the ancient Egyptian period, however, around 300 B.C., Egyptian bakers added to their bread an important ingredient: yeast; It makes bread rise. Today you can bake your own bread at home. You can also buy bread made at bakeries. Most breads today are made using four basic ingredients: flour, yeast, salt, and water.
