1. Read about Reem's room. Answer activity 1+2.

Lessons 5–6 In my room

- How much time do you spend in your room at home?

1 Read about Reem's room. What do you like about it? Is there anything you don't like?

Inside teenagers' rooms

Reem's room is at the top of the house. It's pale blue. There isn't much on the walls, apart from a noticeboard where she puts photos, pictures and the certificates she got for her exams. Her mother isn't keen on her putting up pictures on the walls. If Reem had her way, the room would have pictures on all the walls. It would be painted lime green, with one wall papered in a different colour, and it would have a balcony. But for now, to add colour and interest, she has a pink and white bedspread, some purple cushions in the shape of hearts and some bright pink cushions in the shape of flowers, and lights around the bed. There's an alarm clock and a lamp next to her bed and she's got four storage baskets under the bed, for shoes and for the soft toys she has kept from childhood. There's a wardrobe for her clothes and there are bookshelves next to the wardrobe. 'I've got quite a lot in my room,' she says, 'and it sometimes gets messy, but I don't care. I always know where everything is!'

Reem's room

New words

balcony, bedspread, bookshelf, bookshelves, bunk beds, childhood, collection, cupboard, medal, messy, painted, tidy, toy, trophy, wardrobe

Speaking

- 2 Work in pairs. Ask and answer these questions about Reem's room.
- 1 What does her room tell you about her?
  - 2 Is there anything that your room has in common with Reem's?
  - 3 If Reem had her way, the room would have pictures on all the walls. What does this mean?
  - 4 Do you think Reem is satisfied with her room? If so, why? If not, why not?
  - 5 Does a room always tell you about the person who lives there?

2. Listen. Match the sentences to Hamad or Reem's room.

Listening 4

4 Listen to someone talking about Hamad's room. Then think about Reem's room. Read these questions. Who ...

- H 1 ... lives in a flat?
- R 2 ... has got a noticeboard on the wall?
- R 3 ... would like a balcony?
- H 4 ... sleeps on the top bunk?
- H 5 ... is keen on football?
- R 6 ... has an alarm clock next to the bed?
- R 7 ... storage baskets under the bed?
- H 8 ... a collection of toy cars?

3. In the LMS. Write a paragraph about your room. Answer activity 5.

5 Interview your partner about their room. Make notes of their answers. Ask your partner to check that the notes you've written are correct.

- 1 Is your room neat and tidy, or messy?
- 2 What colour is it?
- 3 What have you got on the walls?
- 4 What else is there in your room?
- 5 Is your room how you like it?
What would you change?

Let's
Practice

WRITING

You are going to write a short paragraph about someone's bedroom.

WRITING TIP

A paragraph is many sentences about one idea. You need an introductory sentence to say what you are writing about, body sentences to give information and a concluding sentence to summarise your ideas.

Introduction:

I am going to write about

's room is

Main body:

what is in their room?

is it tidy or messy?

Conclusion:

has a room.

Compound adjectives

Language tip

To give a precise description of a colour, you can use compound adjectives:

adjective + adjective

It's pale blue.
some bright pink
cushions

noun + adjective

It would be painted
lime green.
