Reading 1

Directions:

Read the passage and answer the questions that follow.

The Rent Man is knocking on Amanda's door.

It is the man who owns the house where she lives. His name is Mr. Campbell. Amanda calls him the Rent Man.

He has come by to get the rent money Amanda owes.

Amanda is home, but she does not answer because she does not have the money to pay him.

Amanda lost her job at the auto factory three and a half weeks ago.

"I worked there for 15 years," Amanda thinks to herself. She is bitter. She feels disappointed. "But it took them just one day to take my job away."

Amanda has no idea when she will find another job. Lots of other people from her factory lost their jobs three weeks ago, too.

She looks for work every day.

She looks for work at a restaurant. "You have never worked at a restaurant," the owner tells her. "This job is not for you."

She looks for work at the bookstore. "We don't have any jobs right now," the clerk tells Amanda.

She looks for work at the grocery store. "I will call you to let you know," the manager says.

Amanda is worried because she is running out of money quickly.

There is another loud knock at the door. Amanda sits quietly in her kitchen, so Mr Campbell will not know she is home. She hopes he will go away soon.
