

Welcome

Class Rules

Mute Yourself!

Be on Time!

READY TO LEARN!

Find a quiet space!

Come Prepared!

Sit Still!

Be Respectful!

Raise your hand to talk!

Attendance

Unit 4

Lesson 9

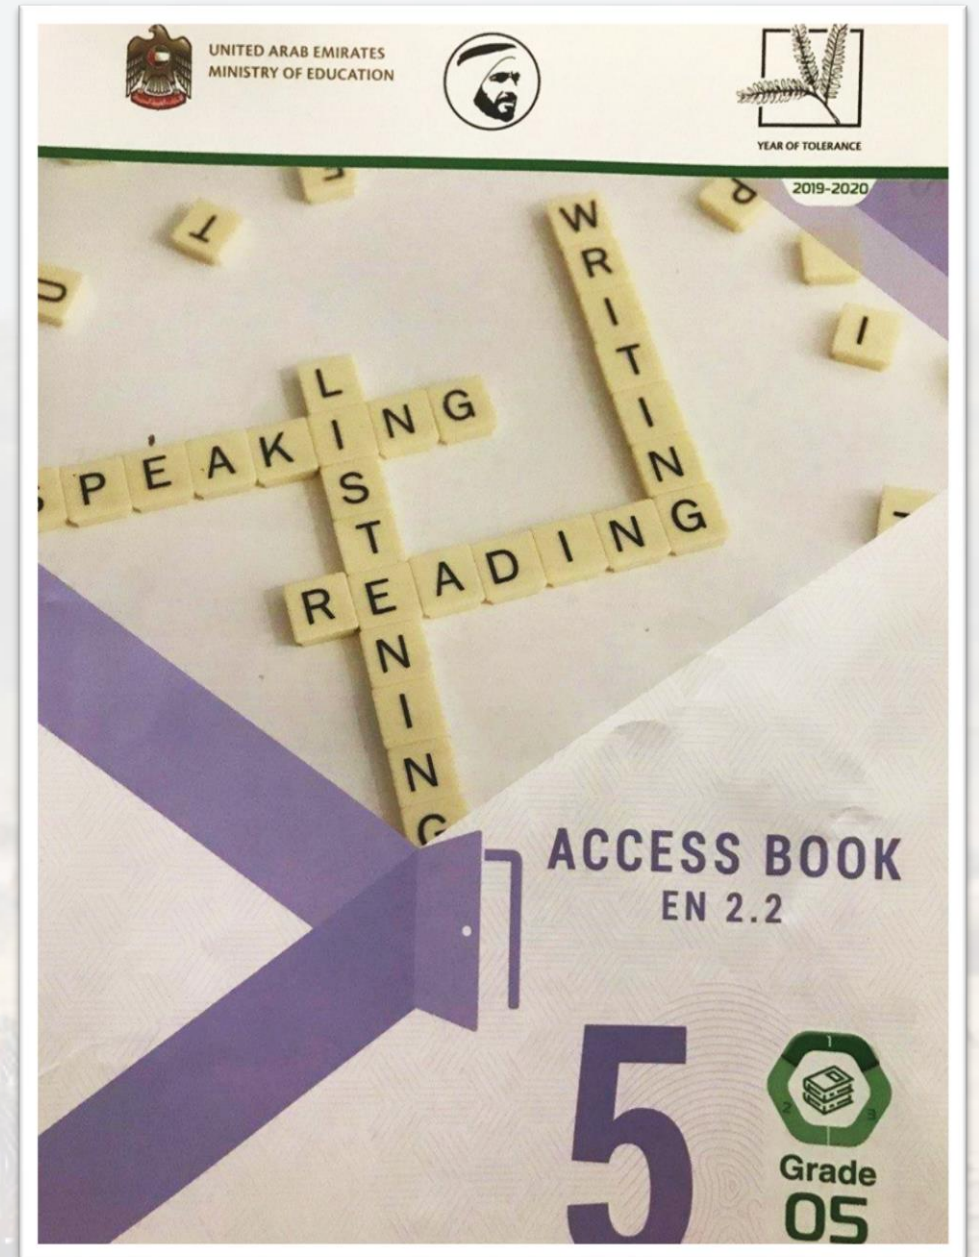

A story (Lost in the desert)

ACCESS

P : 77 / 78

45

Objectives

- To recognize the new vocab .
- To use verbs of movements .
- To read a story for specific information .

Key Language

Verbs of movement

Run away!

Vocabulary

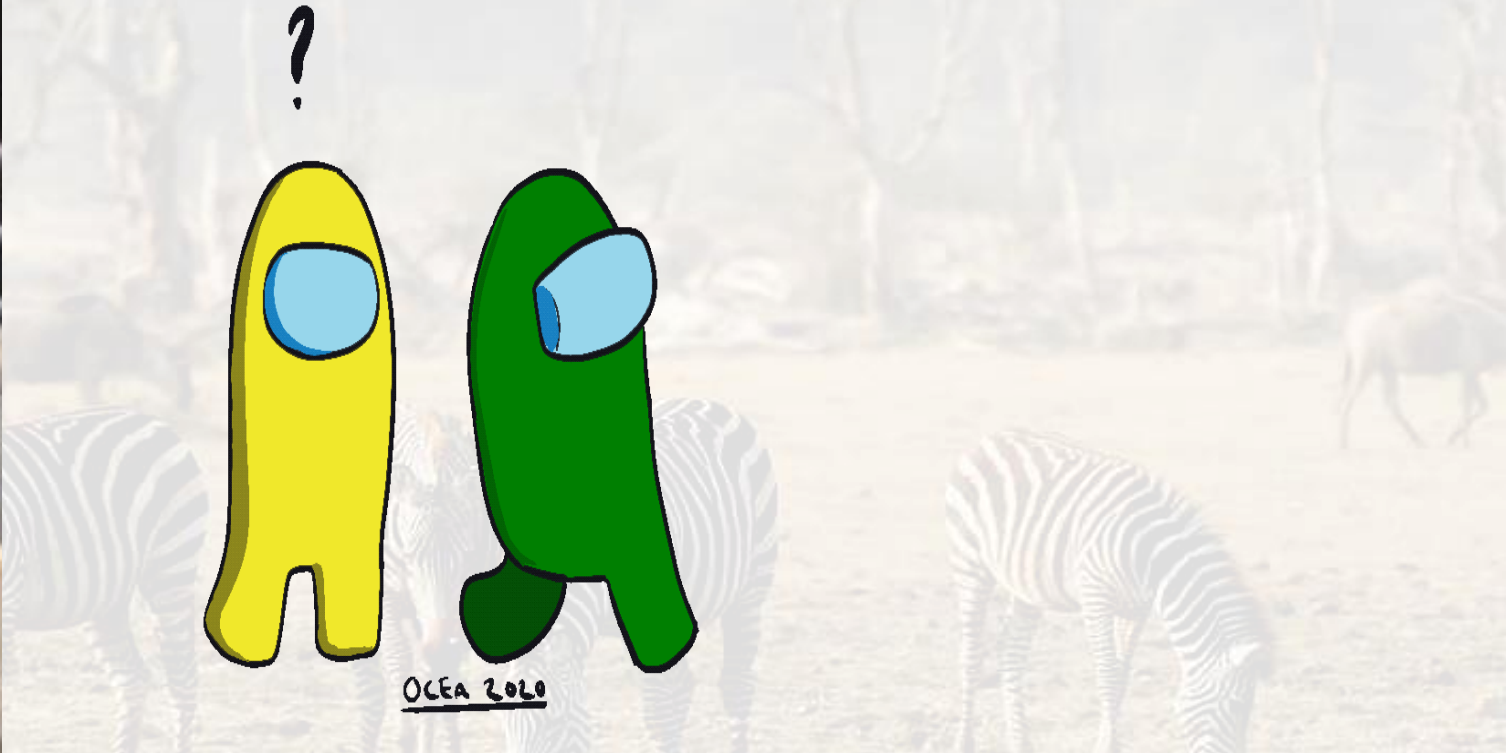

follow, path, rabbit,

jump, run, bee, sand

dune

follow

path

rabbit

jump

run

bee

sand dune

4 Read

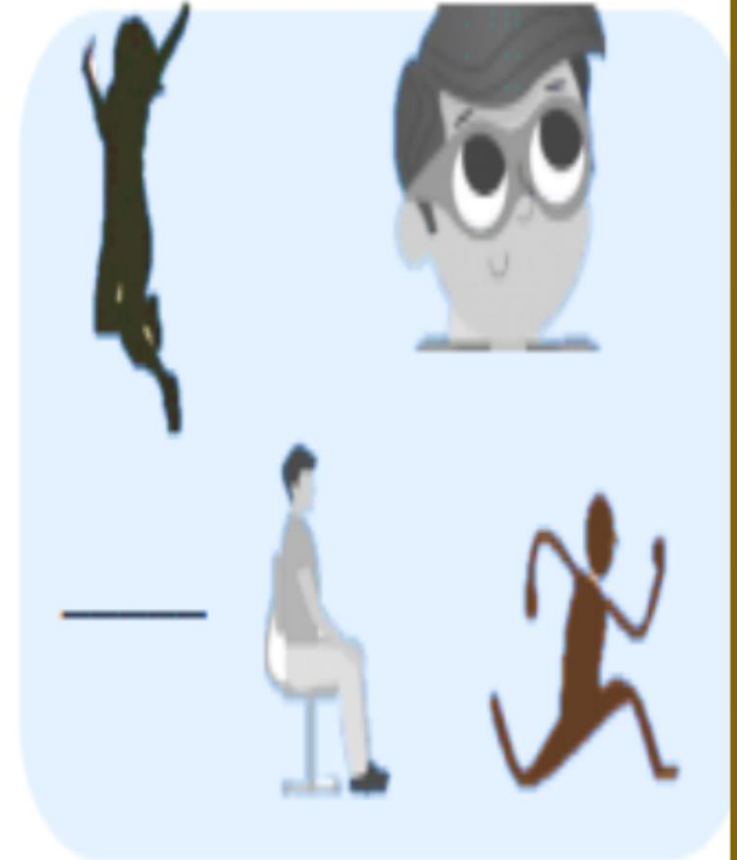

Find the purple words.
What do they mean?

s i t d ow n

r u n a wa y

l oo k up

j um p

1 Read Track 22
Read and listen.

Lost in the desert
by Margo Fallis

There is a kind young girl called Noora. She has brown eyes and long black hair. She is from Egypt. She lives with her family in a village in the desert.

2 Read

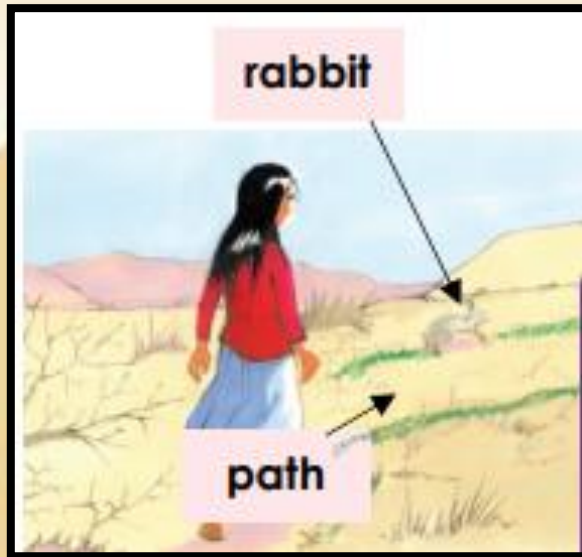

Where does Noora live?

Noora lives in a village .

3 Read Track 23

Look at the pictures.
What is Noora doing?

Noora is playing .

Now read and listen to the story.

There is a path next to the village. Every day, Noora plays on the path. Noora's mother always says, 'Don't leave the path'.

One day, Noora is playing. She sees a rabbit. She wants to follow it. Noora leaves the path and follows the rabbit.

The rabbit jumps over the sand dunes. Noora follows.

She sits next to a tree. She looks up.

There are lots of bees in the tree. Noora doesn't like bees.

She runs away! The bees follow.

She can't see the path. She is lost. She sits down and cries.

5 Read Track 24

Read then answer the question.

Why does Noora sleep?

Noora sleeps because she is tired and hungry .

Noora is looking for the rabbit. She sees a big snake.

She is scared! She jumps onto a rock. The snake goes away. Noora wants to go home. She is tired and hungry. She sits down and goes to sleep.

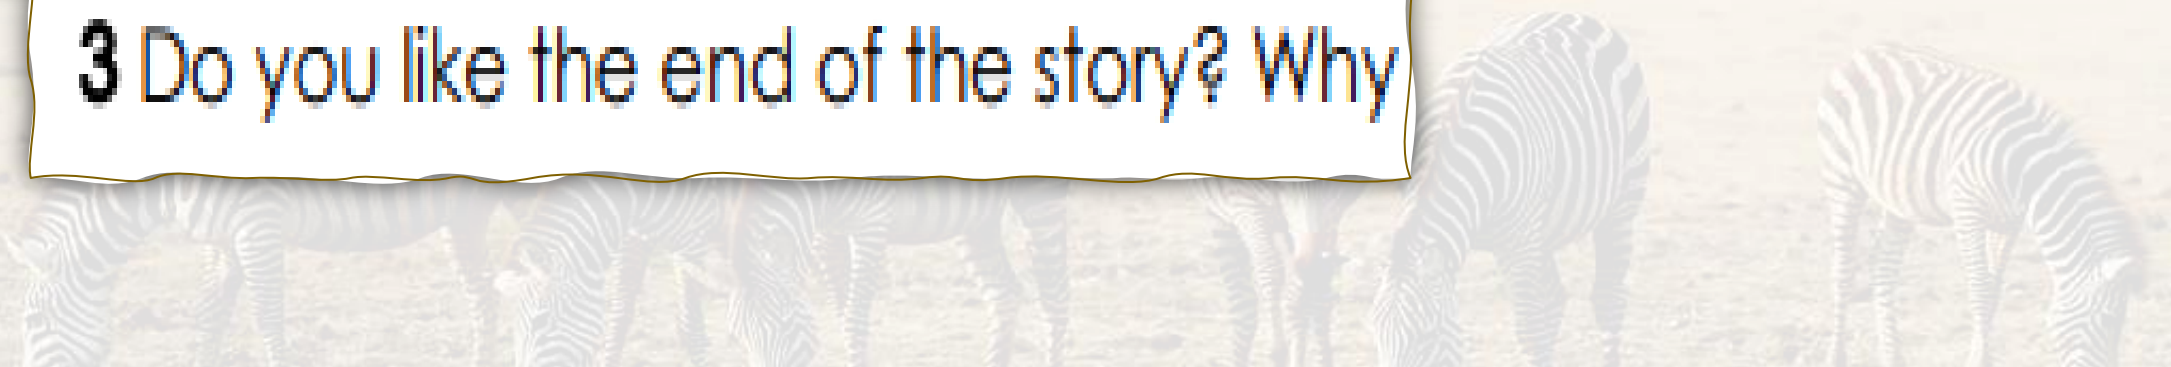

7 Talk

Answer the questions.

1 Why does Noora say sorry?

2 How does Noora find her father?

3 Do you like the end of the story? Why

Lesson 33

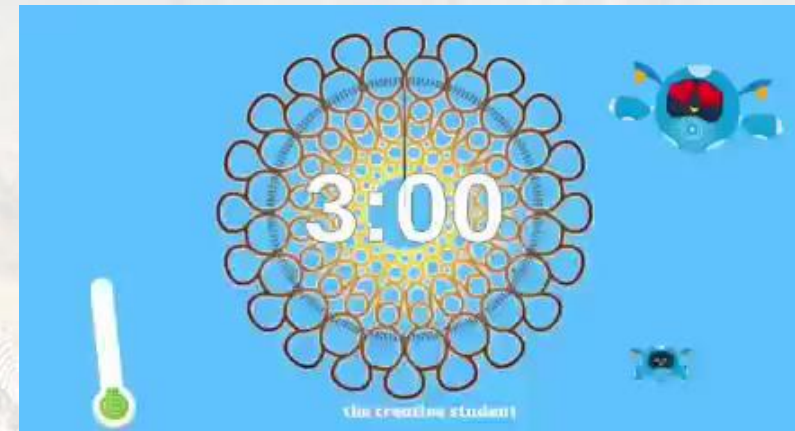

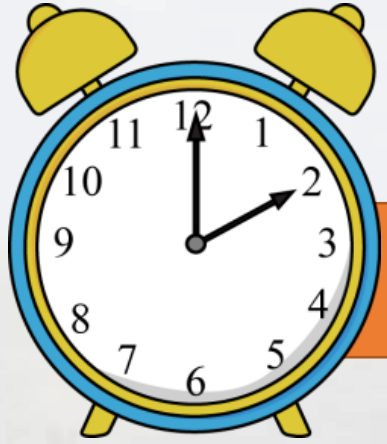

Experiential Learning

The UAE

33. My Country Part Two

 Locked

Evaluation

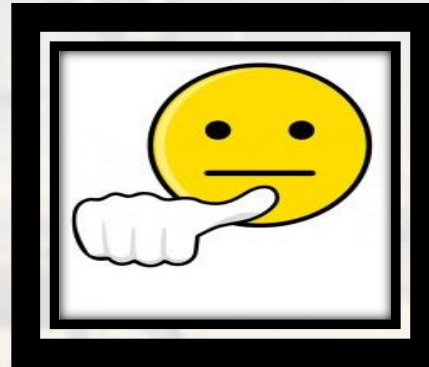

How do you feel about the lesson

1

good

2

Not bad

3

bad

Write a sentence about what you learnt
from the story .

