

Muslims fast in the month of Ramadan.
We begin fast after we see the moon of Ramadan. Children under the age of ten do not have to fast

We eat Suhur before dawn.

We don't eat or drink till sunset.

We pray, read the Qur'an and do good deeds all day.

We break the fast in the evening.

This is called Iftar.

Prophet Muhammad's favorite foods were:

bread and honey,
olives,
watermelon,
dates, meat
and milk.

After Iftar we go to the Masjid
and pray Tarawih.
It is a special prayer in Ramadan.

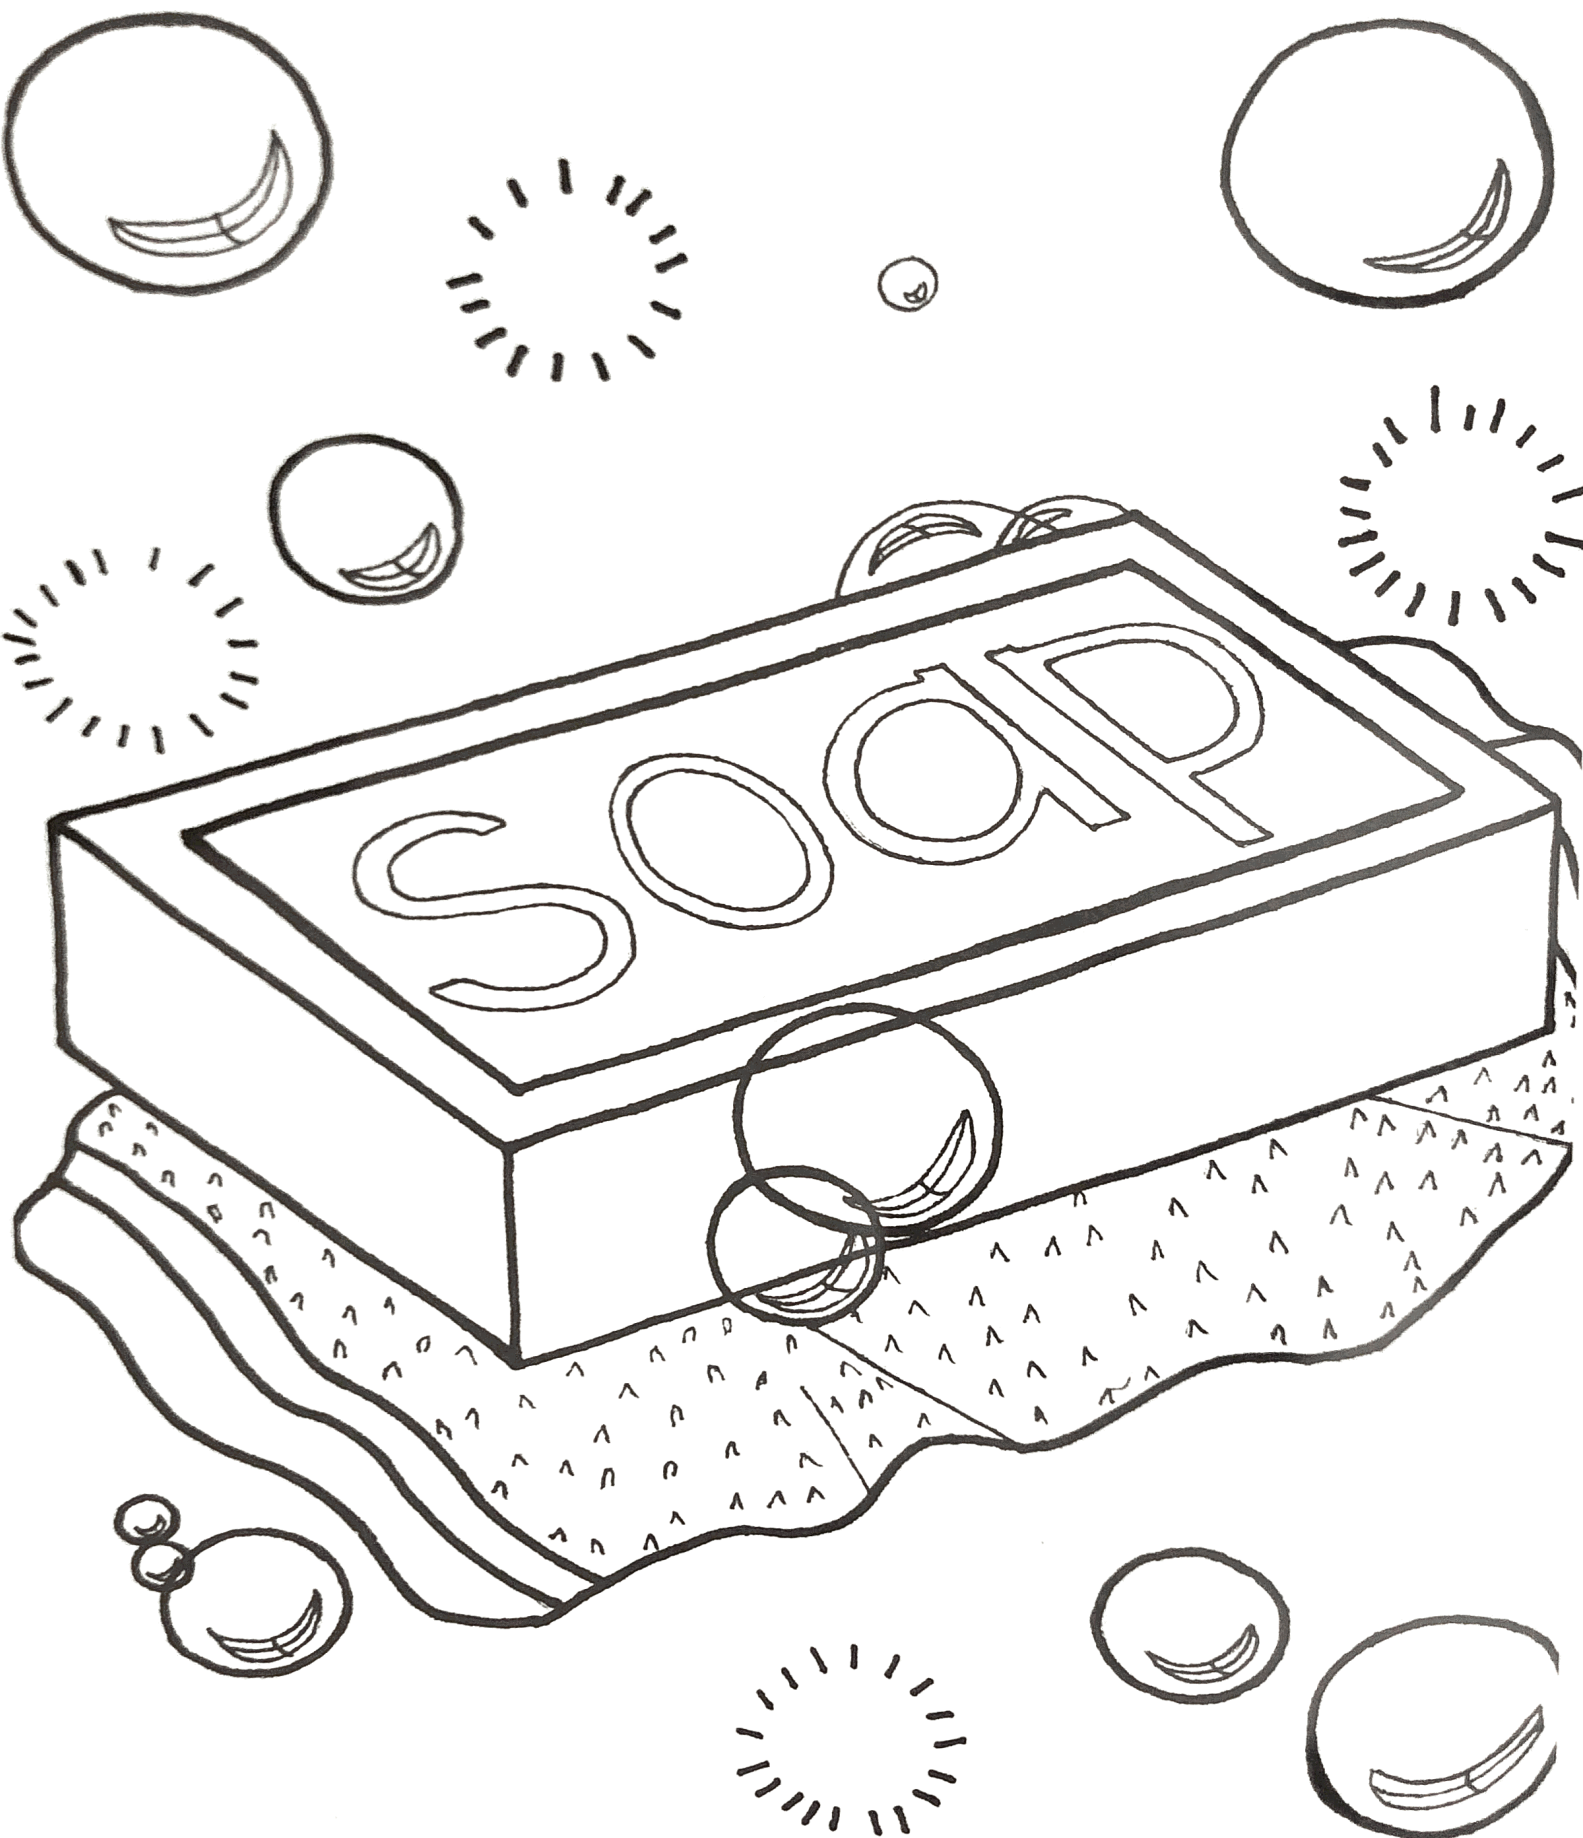

After fasting the whole month of Ramadan,
we celebrate the Eid.
Eid is a special Muslim holiday.
