

(Level 8.1) Grade 12 General (11 Advanced) End-of-Year Revision Maze 1 (2022)

By Mr. Ahmed Abdelfattah

While career and vocation may be used interchangeably by many people, there's actually a huge (difference - location - conference) between the two. A career involves earning an (appearance - activity - income). But if you get it right your vocation can also (get - eat - build) you an income. A career is the (profession - professor - conclusion) you desire. It can be a series of different roles as you move along the career path. There are many people who are not happy with their careers. If they had chosen the right fields that interested them, they (had been - would be - are) happier. You should consult those who can help you choose the right fit. But the problem is (that - which - who) some people don't love (being advised - advised - be advised). It can even be different (jobs - jokes - jars) as you change direction. We often "fall" into our careers because, at the time, it seemed right to (sell - buy - pursue) that particular job field. Many would be happier now if only they (has changed - change - changed) their career. I wish you (will take - would take - may take) this advice (most - more - nor) seriously.

On the other hand, (who is it - where is it - what is it) that distinguishes vocation? It is your passion (that - since - for) makes the difference. It's your innate skill and talent which are (more important - most important - important) than money. Many professionals wish they (had make - had made - made) a better choice when they were young. If only they did, they (enjoy - enjoyed - would enjoy) doing what they are interested in every day. What gives your life meaning (is - are - being) usually a vocation.

The difference between career and vocation may be determined by how you feel about doing the "job". A career is (no good - no better - good) than a vocation. In your career, you may feel you "have to do it" to earn a (dangerous - decent - expensive) salary to pay your bills, give you your annual beach holidays, and buy your monthly groceries. Your vocation gives you (most - many - more) joy than a career. Instead, you immerse yourself fully, with a deep sense of purpose and meaning, when doing something that's your vocation.

May people (do - doing - had done) a lot of careers before they could finally catch their current vocation.

This is just a draft Maze prepared by Mr. Ahmed Abdelfattah, trying to cover the grammatical rules that might be included in the end-of-year exam.

For any further inquiries, please don't hesitate to contact me via (0505216608)

Best of Luck!