(3)- Read the following, then answer the questions:

The first day at my new middle school was probably the worst day of my life. My parents forced me to attend a school 45 minutes away from my home. Out of a big class of incoming students , I knew no one . Not a single person . I had spent the last six years in a class with 30 kids : I had not had to make a new friend at school since the first grade. I don't think I have ever felt as lonely as I did that day , before or since. So , of course, I entered school that first day with a massive load on my shoulders.
