B. Poetry "If"

Answer the following questions:

1- Who is the poet of the poem (If)?

Rudyard Kipling

2- Paraphrase the following lines and Mention the figures of speech.

you If can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you,
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting too,
If you can wait and not be tired of waiting,
Or being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or being hated, don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good, nor walk too wise:

The answer:-

The father asks his son to be brave and have confidence in himself. He calls him to have the patience to listen to others' criticism even if it is untrue. He advises him to follow an honest, loving moderate way of life

Figures of speech:

Contrast: "keep your head"	X	"losing theirs"
"lied about"	X	"don't deal in lies"

4- Mention the only personification in this poem.

The answer:-

Personification:

make dreams your master
treat those to impostors

5- Mention the figures of speech in the following lines;

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with kings – not lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And which is more you'll be a Man, my son.

The answer:-

Figures of speech

Contrast: “foes” X “friends”

hyperbole: Yours is the Earth
You'll be a Man

6- What is the function of using comparisons in this poem?

The answer:-

These comparisons serve in clarifying to picture of perfection which the poet is trying to describe.

7-What does the word "Man" in the last line represent?

It represents the person who has good morals, strength of character and a generous, loving, understanding, forgiving nature.

8-Why does the poet repeat "If" in his poem?

The poet repeats "If" several times in each stanza, then the answer to all those ifs comes in the last two lines. This makes the picture complete.

D. A Tale of Two Cities (A. level)

From chapter 10 to 13

1-“One Hundred and Five, North Tower. It was the only name he had when he came to me in 1775.” Comment!

Defarge said this to the tribunal. He was talking about Dr. Manette’s condition when he left the prison. After the revolution, he went to this room and he found the letter in which Dr. Manette condemn all the Evermondes.

2- How did Carton fulfill his promise to Lucie?

Carton promised Lucie to protect her and her family. He went to Darnay in the prison and changed places with him in order to save him as he was going to be killed instead of Darnay.

3- “They say that the revolution will do so much good for poor people, how can my death help poor people?” Comment!

The young lady said this to Carton. She was wondering how her death can help the poor people in France. This reflects how cruel and harsh the people of France turned to be after the revolution.

4- Madam Defarge’s character changed brutally after the revolution while Carton changed bravely?

(brutal =cruel, violent and completely without feelings)

The answer: After the revolution, Madam Defarge turned out to be very cruel. She was the one most feared. All her life she had been filled with hate. On the other hand, Sydney Carton was an indifferent man who had no hope in life but after the revolution he turned out to be a very brave man who was ready to sacrifice his life to keep his promise with Lucie and protect her and her family.

5- “To see the death of Evermonde, I shall not be late.” Comment!

Madam Defarge said this to her friend when she decided to go to Lucie’s house. Her friend asked her not to be late for the time of Darnay’s death at 3.00 o’clock.

6- “It’s a far, far better thing that I do, than I have ever done. It’s a far, far better rest that I go to, than I have ever known.” Comment!

These words were said by Sydney Carton to himself directly before his death. This quote reflects his feeling of peace inside and his complete satisfaction of the decision he made and the sacrifice of his life for Lucie’s family. He was completely sure that he was doing the right thing for the right people.

7- How did Madam Defarge use Dr. Manette’s letter in a sneaky way?

She kept the letter with her and she and her husband accused Darnay again after going out of prison. That’s why he was arrested again. She also informed the tribunal that Dr. Manette was the one who accused Darnay.

8- Madam Defarge's loss of her family changed her into an insensitive monster. Discuss the reasons of her inhuman actions.

When she was a little girl, her sister was kidnapped by two of the Evermonde's. One of them killed her brother. As a result, her father died. She wanted to take revenge of the whole family of the Evermonde. That's why she accused Darnay with the letter of Dr. Manette as an evidence in order to be killed with the Guillotine.

9- "Not until they're all dead, every one of that family"

Madam Defarge said this to her husband in the wine shop. Sydney Carton was listening to this conversation and he knew then that Madam Defarge was planning to kill the whole family.

10- "After today no judge in Paris would even try to save him. The people would be angry."

Sydney Carton said this to Mr. Lorry in Lucie's house in Paris after Darnay's trial was over and in less than twenty-four hours he would go to the Guillotine. No judge can help Darnay because it was a public matter and people would be angry if he was released from the prison. That reflects that the people had the power over justice.

E. “David Copperfield” (O. level)

Chapters from chapter 6 to chapter 10

15- “When she realized how much her father needed me”

What does this sentence tell you about Uriah’s intentions?

These words show that Uriah’s intention is to marry Agnes by force after he becomes her father’s partner who is in need for Uriah to keep his business going.

16- Summarize Emily’s letter!

Emily wrote this letter for Ham asking him to forgive her for running away and leaving him as she was not good enough for him. She also said that she would never return until she became a lady. Finally, she would always love Daniel even if he didn’t anymore.

17- Uriah Heep is a two-faced, cunning villain who puts on a false show of humility and meekness to disguise/ hide his evil intentions. How much do you agree with this?

All the time he pretended to be humble and of no importance. On the other hand, he was secretly intending to become Mr.

Wickfield’s partner by taking control of everything. He was also planning to marry Agnes by force after she felt how much her father needed him.

18- Describe Mr. Micawber's conditions. Why did he call himself Mortimer?

Mr. Micawber had to move to another house to avoid his creditors who demand payment of his debts. He changed his name to Mortimer, and he only came out of the house after dark, wearing glasses.

19- "I just hope that love and truth will always be stronger than evil!" Said Agnes Explain! Or/ What happened to Mr. Wickfiels?

Uriah Heep became Mr. wickfield's partner. He had a great influence on him. Mr. Wickfield became much worse. He looked years older. He was also drinking a lot. To make it worse, Uriah and his mother moved to live with the Wickfields. As a result, Agnes couldn't protect her father from Uriah's plans. That's why she felt so sad and said this quote.

20- "OH, David! Blind, blind, blind" Comment!

Miss Betsey said this to David in his room in London when she advised him to find a good, serious and sensible person to love and he answered her saying that Dora was very sensible. She meant that love is blind.

21- Dora was foolish and giddy? Comment!/ Is Dora the best wife for David?

Dora was not the best wife for David. She was foolish and childish. She wasn't practical or reliable enough to be responsible for a house and a husband. When David told her about his financial conditions, she was shocked and then fainted. She was always acting like a child.

22- What did Miss Murdstone reveal?

Miss Murdstone had found David's letters to Dora and gave them to Mr. Spenlow. Mr. Spenlow knew about David's secret love to his daughter Dora and was very upset and asked David to forget the whole thing.

23- How did Dora react to any problem?

She always cried. She kept telling him that he shouldn't have married her as he knew that she was silly before marriage and that he didn't love her. Once, she asked David to call her "child wife".

24- What did Daniel decide to do after he had found Emily?

They were going to Australia in about two weeks. It was a new country, where nobody knows anything about her past. They would be able to start a new life together.

25- Mr. and Mrs. Peggotty are devoted and loving people. Explain giving examples!

Mr. Peggotty didn't forget David and went to tell him about Emily as David was always their friend. Mrs. Peggotty wanted to stay in Yarmouth partly because of David, and partly to look after Ham.

26- What was written in Mr. Micawber's letter?

Mr. Micawber asked both David and Traddles to go to Canterbury at once as he discovered horrible truth about Uriah Heep and he wanted to share them with them.

27- "You can never prove it" Comment!

Uriah said this to Mr. Micawber in the Wickfield's house when he revealed his corruption in front of everyone. Mr. Micawber answered him that he had taken copies of these documents and gave them to Mr. Traddles.

28- What happened to Dora? How did it affect David?

Dora was getting worse and then she died after seeing Agnes for the last time. David couldn't believe she would be taken from him. He remembered only darkness for a long time afterwards as he was in the middle of terrible sadness. He travelled and spent three years abroad to try to forget Dora.
